Hi All

This is just a “re-send “ of my message from earlier this week.

Here is my cell: 914-582-3088

See you tomorrow.

Hi All

I am looking forward to seeing all of you this Friday, October 15. The session will be in the same location as last time on the Pace Campus in White Plains and so it will be familiar to Colin and Jason.

Please see attached. It describes the mini-charrette we will be doing. Directions and the Agenda are also attached. The mini-charrette begins with my presentation at 1:00, but you should try to get there between 12:00 and 12:30 and have some lunch. Of course, feel free to come earlier.

I am sending along two other e-mails that have some background information the participating communities have been asked to review.

Also, I would like to take all of you out for at least a beer, and maybe a quick bite to eat for those who do not need to rush off.

Please send me an e-mail confirming that you have received this. Thanks

Rob
