Hi Jason,

Attached is your chapter proposal, which I included in the book proposal I wrote.

The publisher sent me feedback from two reviewers last week. The reviewers recommended "a) we accept this proposal as it stands or after minor revisions". I submitted my response to the reviewers on Monday. Today, the publisher informed me that the board meeting is next week. This is when the decision is made to offer a contract.

I plan to send a book update email to all contributors in a week or so.

Best,
Reneta

Reneta,

Can you send me more details on the book proposal for my PARSE? I am applying for promotion this year and would like to include this proposal in my file.

Thanks!

Jason

Well, there's no contract yet... and it's just me but so far, so good.

Hi Jason,

Our book project was accepted by the editor who sent it out for peer review. She informed me that I should expect to receive reviews of the proposal before the end of next month.

Best,
Reneta

Reneta,

Any word on the book proposal?

Hope your semester started well.

Best,

Jason
