Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my interest in the position of "Internships the Clinton Foundation" advertised as being open with your company at this time. I am a hard working young woman currently in college attending New York College of Technology with years of experience in the education field as well as in the professional technical writing field. Now I would like to bring my expertise and knowledge to work with your company. I have 7 years of experience in the education field with certificates that enhanced my credibility. I started my career in education by entering a nonprofit organization that allowed me to advocate for those whom ever scared or who couldn't do it for themselves. As years progressed, I began applying for jobs that allowed me to continue sharing my knowledge with those younger than myself.

My ability to work as a team player and go the extra mile has contributed to my success. As my stable employment history shows, I am dependable and dedicated, and have history in the technical writing field. I am very familiar with the responsibilities that Internships the Clinton Foundation has to obtain. I can be reached at my email Jamikarussell@gmail.com.

Sincerely,

Jamika Russell
