

WEEKLY WRITING JOURNAL: Week of April 12 ,2019

Tasks:

Being that we are still in April, it is my responsibility to complete the April newsletter. The newsletter has to be a minimum of 2 pages long. The newsletter discuss what the students are learning throughout the month. Organizing the newsletter by subject, giving details of each allowed me to complete the newsletter successfully. Once given details for each subject, I was told that the parents enjoy to read quotes from the child, or see pictures from throughout the day. Due to me not being able to take pictures, the best thing for me to do was to state quotes that I think the parents would like.

Challenges:

Mentioned in my earlier journal, I stated that creating the April newsletter would be much easier than the March newsletter. By my surprise it was still very different. The process of imputing the information I believe was the hardest. I did not know what to keep out and what to keep for each newsletter. Creating April's newsletter would have been easier if the students were doing the same activities every month. However, every month my class in addition to the whole school follows a different lesson plan.
