

Judith H. Kamdem, RN
605 East 82nd Street Brooklyn NY 11236
Home (718)-209-1957 - Cell (347)-614-8418
Judith.kamdem@mail.citytech.cuny.edu

OBJECTIVE:

Seeking a position as a Registered Nurse in a facility where I can provide safe, competent, quality care in which my professional skills can be enhanced and utilized effectively.

EDUCATION/LICENSURE

N.Y.C. College of Technology: NY BSN anticipation graduation date May. 2012
LaGuardia Community College NY Associate in Nursing Dec. 2009
Licensure Examination for Registered Nurse: Mar 2010
N.Y.C. College of Technology Deans List Certificate of Merit Fall 2010 & spring 2011

EXPERIENCE:

Housing Works west 13th February 2012 to Present

A self-motivated, dedicated professional who can work effectively as a multi-disciplinary team member and adapt to different systems

Provide nursing care to Immunodeficiency/Aids clients as well as others

Ability to interact with people effectively and understand their problems

Conducted HIV tests and both Pre and Post test counseling for individuals

Conducted HIV/AIDS group's educational session

Educating toward safer Sex life, administer oral and injection medication,

Provided counseling to HIV infected patients and motivated them for a healthy happy life

Maintain client's confidentiality, follow clinic's policies and documenting efficiency through electronically software program : ECW.

Obstetrics and Gynecology outpatient Office 2009 till present

Collected information of the patient including vitals and medical history

Coordinated with the nursing and interdisciplinary team for daily patient care assignments

Schedule patient's appointment, organize and maintain medical records

Perform vital sign, phlebotomy and secretary duty

Bellevue Hospital, New York Surgical Intensive Care Unit

July 09-Sept 09

Apply nursing theory to assess, implement, and evaluation of patient responses to health and illness

Assess and implement patient care plan according to patient priorities and administered medication under supervision of RN preceptor.

Performed wound care, monitored and tracked vital signs, performed procedures such as, phlebotomy tracheotomy suctioning and collect specimens (blood, urine).

Assisted in insertion and discontinuation of intravenous lines and urinary catheter

Clinical Rotations:

Woodhull Medical Center (Brooklyn, NY)

OBGYN clinic

Feb 11-May 11

Provide care and support to child-bearing women and their families during the antepartum, intrapartum and postpartum periods.

Educated mothers with ways and techniques to nurse new born babies e.g. bathing, feeding

Provide education about the importance of breastfeeding

Use knowledge and safety to provide care to young pregnant women and their children

Provided individual assessment support and teaching during the prenatal period.

Provide competence and sensitivity in caring for multicultural patient and families

Provided appropriate parents care and maintain excellent relationship with them

Coler-Goldwater (NY, NY)

Medical/Surgical II

Sept 09-Dec 09

Assist clients on mechanical ventilation, performing suction, wound cares and bed site care

Implemented infection control techniques in all patient interactions

Administer medication via NasoGastric & Gastric tube, subcutaneous and oral

Good creative, problem-solving and organizational skills

Performed activity of daily living such as: dressing, bathing, feeding

Routine vital signs check, diets, continence and appropriate documentation.

Strong interpersonal, leadership and communication skills

Mont Sinai Hospital (Queens, NY)

Medical Surgical Nursing I

Sept 08-Dec 08

Successfully follow charge nurse to performed lab duties, throat cultures, urinalysis, catheterizations, and nasal swabs

Utilize critical thinking and problem-solving to perform head to toes assessment and medication administration or/and observation

Assess residents' health condition, develop treatment plans, and supervise licensed practical nurses and nursing aides with collaboration of the preceptor

SKILLS:

Computer literate, CPR certified, Certificate of completion Basic EKG, infection control part I & II Bilingual (English, French) REFERENCES: Available upon request