Dear Ms. Macoo,

I am honored that you have chosen me as a judge for this years "Artistic Children Awards" but I must sadly decline this invitation. Although in the past I have judged and as a child even participated in this event an Important matter has come up that prevents me from participating this year. A personal idol of mines will be in New York on the day that the event will be taking place and I will be participating in workshop that he will be hosting. I have revered this individual for many years now and I feel that by attending this workshop my own personal skill as an artist will be increased.

I would be honored to take place in your future events if you wish to include me and I am extremely sorry to send you this news. If you are running out of choices for your event just email me at my email "Karlmail35@yahoo.com" and I will try to arrange something. Again, thank you for this invitation its alway nice to see your arranging this event Ms. Macoo.
