Dear Dr. Raffi Khatchadourian,

You are cordially invited to be a program committee member of the symposium on Software Engineering Technology and Application (SETA) of the 40th COMPSAC 2016 Program Committee, to be held in Atlanta, Georgia, USA, during June 10-14, 2016.

For more information, please visit the IEEE COMPSAC 2016 web site at <http://www.computer.org/web/compsac2016/seta2016>

As a PC member, you are expected to contribute to the SETA Symposium of COMPSAC 2016 as follows:

* Review 6-8 papers in the review period. We would like to emphasize that we want your own review rather than the reviews of individuals you found to assist you to assess the papers assigned to you.

* Participate in the on-line discussion for the papers assigned. We expect that you read the reviews of the other reviewers of the paper assigned to you and actively resolve any issues to make a decision recommendation: typically, accepted as regular paper, accepted as short paper, etc.

* Help to publicize the COMPSAC 2016.

* Review submissions to the journal special issues dedicated to SETA. We are happy to inform you that our Symposium has confirmed with Journal of Systems and Software (JSS) to organize a special issue.

* If possible, attend the physical PC meeting on February 19-20, 2016 held in Tokyo.
