Bees prepare for the holidays in a magical world of brilliant flowers- part of a multi-window scene at Galeries Lafayette,2022

I noticed that these window displays are Christmas-themed. The New York Bloomberg window display is more of a fashion Christmas theme. I see mannequins wearing different types of clothing. The girl on top is wearing a long dress that looks like a tree and the man on the side is wearing a jumpsuit. The Paris window display is Bees decorated just like the elves decorate the warehouse but the Bees have flowers.
