Dear Employer,

I am writing to express my interest in the position of GAP designer for Teen Girl apparel, as advertised on your website career page. I have years of experience in hand sketch, am proficient in Adobe Illustrator and Microsoft Office. I also advance in design skills, conceptual skills, and have a strong sense of style and color. I believe I will be a great fit for this role because I retain a lot of knowledge of female apparel and designs.

In the job posting, it is mentioned that the qualifications needed for this position are someone who understands the design process from conception to final styling, strong communication skills, market research, conceptual presentations, new trends, seasonal themes, and guidance through fabrics. Throughout my four years in college, I have learned these qualities thoroughly.

This job opening is the perfect opportunity for me to offer you my marketing skills and knowledge of silhouettes. I also want to bring my motivation, organizational skills, and hand sketch skills. For a better understanding of my background and qualifications, please review my resume. I am eager to speak with you about this opportunity and thoroughly appreciate your consideration.

Sincerely,

Kaynait Zafar
