

PETER HALLEY

Paintings of the 1980s
The Catalogue Raisonné
Peter Halley is a prominent contemporary artist. A member of the dynamic New York art scene of the 1980s, he gained recognition as one of the main champions of the neo-geo movement with his geometric paintings rendered in intense fluorescent Day-Glo acrylic paint and Roll-a-Text texture additive.

PAINTINGS

1980s
1990s
2000s
2010s

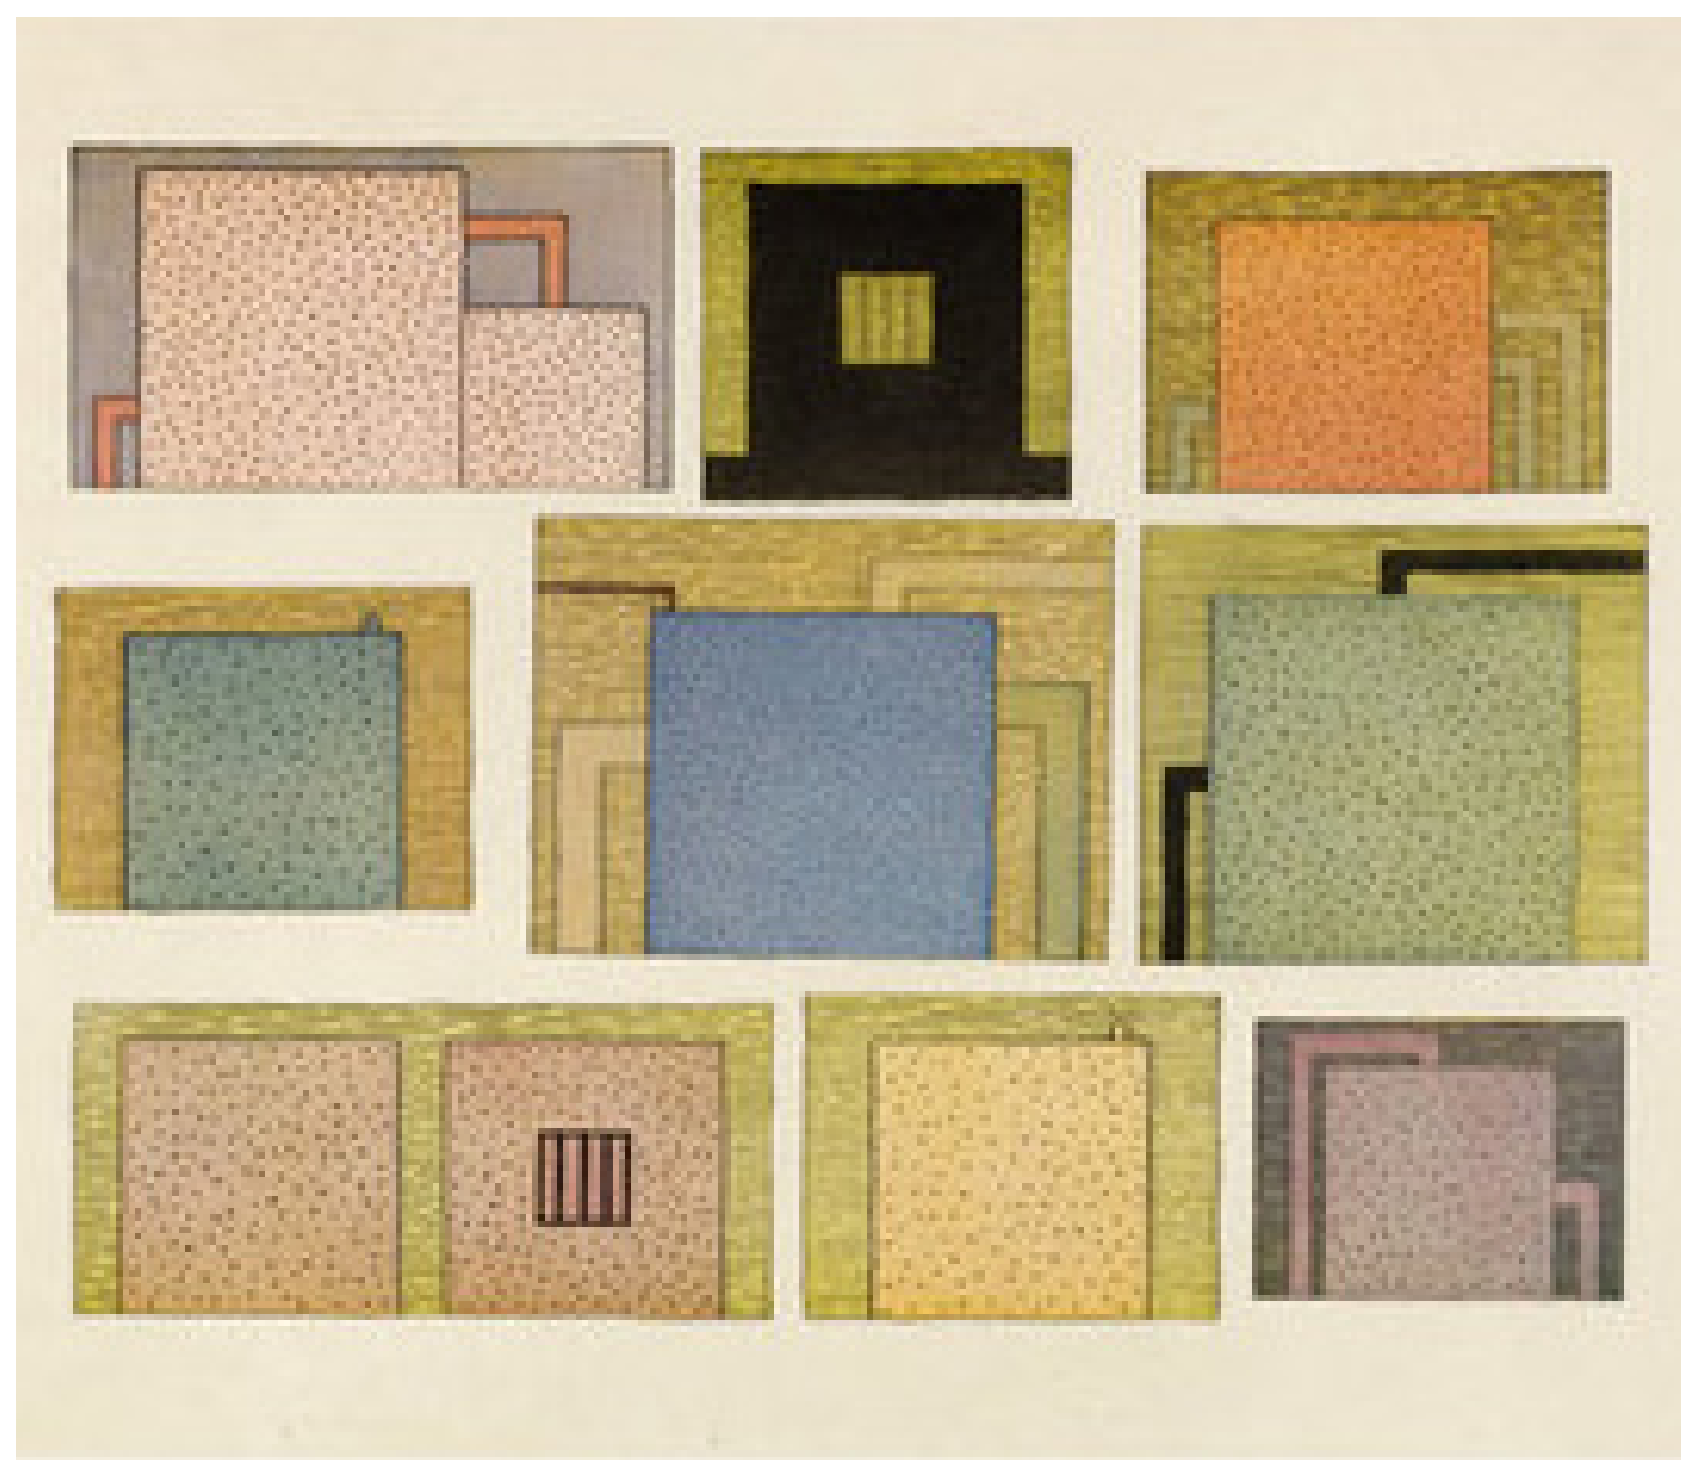

2019 QUBE, Lauren Clay and Peter Halley, Galerija Kula, Split, Croatia

NOVEMBER 2019
HETEROTOPIA II – PETER HALLEY
GREENE NAFTALI, NEW YORK

PRINTS

A Tour of the Monuments of Passaic, New Jersey, 1989. Portfolio of five prints, numbered 1-5
Line engraving on Kitikata paper
Each print 16 x 20 inches Edition of 50
Publisher:
Pace Editions
Edition Schellmann
Printer:
The Spring Street Workshop