This source is very useful to support the crime and safety topic in Farragut House. This source basically from the NYPD website, in the Housing Bureau sections, list that Farragut House which in the area of 84 precinct is part of Police Service Area 3. The Commanding Officer, Captain Charles A. Minch explains about the eleven programs that NYPD have in order to make the neighborhood in area 3 safer and better. Those programs also inviting volunteers from the people who lives in the neighborhood to participate and help the police officers to beautify the area. One of the programs is Counter-Terrorism Program which people can make a report anonymously in anytime if they see something suspicious in the area. This can encourage people want to do more and not scared if they will get into any trouble because of their report because their data is confidential.

- "Cameras to Go up at Tragic Brooklyn Housing Project, among Others." Cameras to Go up at Tragic Brooklyn Housing Project, among Others. Brooklyn Daily Eagle, 11 June 2014. Web. 08 Nov. 2015. <http://www.brooklyneagle.com/articles/2014/6/11/cameras-go-tragic-brooklyn-housing-project-among-others>.

This article wrote about the cameras installation in the Public Housing in Brooklyn. Mayor Bill de Blasio in this article said that the safety in the public housing is one of his priority of his administration. He will continue to help NYCHA residents get a quality life that they deserve. This action gives hope, not only for the residence of the Farragut House but also the people who lives in the neighborhood who always wishing to have a safe area to live. This is a very good source of example that the government is helping NYCHA in reducing crime rates in the area.

- Compstat Unit, NYPD, ed. "New York City Police Department Communications Systems." 23rd IEEE Vehicular Technology Conference (n.d.): n. pag. New York Police Department. Web. 10 Oct. 2015. http://www.nyc.gov/html/nypd/downloads/pdf/crime_statistics/cs-en-us-084pct.pdf.

This is the data statistics of the crime at the precinct 84 where is the Farragut House is included. People can see from the stats that comparing from 1990 to 2014, the number of the crime is decreasing significantly. It means that Farragut House area is safer comparing to ten years ago. For example, people can see the very significant change of the number in robbery, in 1990 there was 1,908 case and in 2014, it was only 142. From thousand to hundred, its means its far away better condition. Another case, bulgary, it decrease to only about 10 percent of the cases from the 1990 which was 1,563 cases.

This article is the example of the crime that happened in Farragut House. The case happened on march 11, 1987. The victim is William Bennett, who were retired worker of the Navy Yard, was being murdered by a woman who also lived at the Farragut House. The murder named Elaine Ested, 35 years old. According to the article, she killed Mr. Bennett because he refused to give her more money. Then she pushed him and stabbed him until dead.

- Brennan, Bridget. "Newly Refurbished Gymnasium at Farragut Houses in Brooklyn: Funding through Seized Narcotics Proceeds." Office of the Special Narcotics Prosecutor for the City of New York, 15 July 2015. Web. 4 Nov. 2015. http://www.nyc.gov/html/snp/downloads/pdf/farragut_houses_071515.pdf

This source is important because it shows the relationship between the police and the members of the community. the article speaks of a police drug bust that occurred in the Farragut houses. the investigation to this bust, which had 14 defendants, was sparked by complaints by residents of the Farragut houses. the money seized in the investigation was used to refurbish the community gym. It allowed them to buy new equipment including a new scoreboard and the residents were happy to see youth athletics in the Farragut houses getting benefited. If not for the trust the residents of the Farragut houses put in their local law enforcement, this situation may never have been addressed and gotten resolved in the manner it did.

- Prison Expenditure and Million Dollar Blocks Brooklyn, NY. Digital image. RSS 20. Wbur News Station, 2 Oct. 2012. Web. 7 Nov. 2015. <<http://www.wbur.org/npr/162149431/million-dollar-blocks-map-incarcerations-costs>>.

This image source was able to give us a visual representation of prison expenditures for a given neighborhood. What this was able to do was show a plain picture that allowed us to compare and contrast the amount of money the city spent on incarcerations for the year 2009. The areas were color coded with dark red showing the neighborhoods where the city will spend more than one million dollars to incarcerate people that year. Areas like Brownsville and Bedford-Stuyvesant had dark red areas whereas the area where the Farragut houses are located did not. Based on this map we can see that the Farragut houses area has relatively less criminals than areas like Brownsville
