

In Honor of the 50th Anniversary of the Stonewall Uprisings

The LGBTQI+ Faculty and Staff Group and The Ad Hoc Subcommittee on Diversity and Inclusion in the Curriculum and Education

PRESENT

The Studying Stonewall Project:

Teaching & Learning about Intersections of Sexuality, Gender, Race, Class & History

Upcoming Events and Activities

Thursday, October 10 in Academic Complex 209

12:45 – 2:00PM DIVERSITY DIALOGUE:
"Studying Stonewall: Teaching, Learning and Talking about the Intersections of Sexuality, Gender, Race and Class in the Classroom" A student, faculty, and staff roundtable discussion.

2:15 – 3:45PM MOVIE SCREENING: Stonewall Uprising (2019) from the PBS American Experience Series

Friday, October 11, Janet Lefler Dining Room, Namm 215

12:00 – 2:00PM LUNCH:

A Celebration of National Coming Out Day and the Anniversary of the Stonewall Uprising. (Hosted by LGBTQI+ Faculty and Staff Group) No charge! Seating is Limited, so RSVP is required to amehrotra@citytech.cuny.edu.

2:30 – 4:30PM FIELD TRIP:

Visit to the Stonewall Exhibit at the Brooklyn Museum:
"Nobody Promised You Tomorrow: Art 50 Years After Stonewall"
RSVP is Required. To participate, please RSVP by October 9th, 2019 to dbennett@citytech.cuny.edu.

If you are interested in learning more about or joining:

- The LGBTQI+ Faculty and Staff Group, please contact Professor Mehrotra at amehrotra@citytech.cuny.edu.
- The Ad Hoc Subcommittee on Diversity and Inclusion in the Curriculum and Education (DICE), please contact Professor Bennett at dbennett@citytech.cuny.edu.
- Gender and Sexuality Studies Courses, please contact Professor Westengard at Lwestengard@citytech.cuny.edu

Are You Paying Attention to the 50th Anniversary of the Stonewall Uprising?

Co-sponsored by Gender and Sexuality Studies, The Gen Ed Theme Committee, and Faculty Commons