

Write your criteria for website evaluation -- what are the MOST important criteria you should use when evaluating web content?

Is it satire or parody -- how can you tell?

Is the site as credible as print sources on the same
What is the purpose of the site? To inform, persuade, sell, other?

Criteria for website evaluation Authenticity: has the article or document been copied through multiple sites and adjusted by people at the different site...

Type of site...paywall?

web design

web layout

site purpose

site credibility

site content

Size of the Page (scrollable)

Layout

Colors

Date of publication

Sources used

Objectivity of the article

Author's background

Grammar and writing style - is it professional or written by a twelve year old?

url

peer validation

context

images

punctuation

about

font

does the page scroll

scholarly worth

relevance

author's credentials

works cited

Validity of sources

Authors Background

Other works by the author