

Accompanying Images for Podcast

Grand Central Terminal

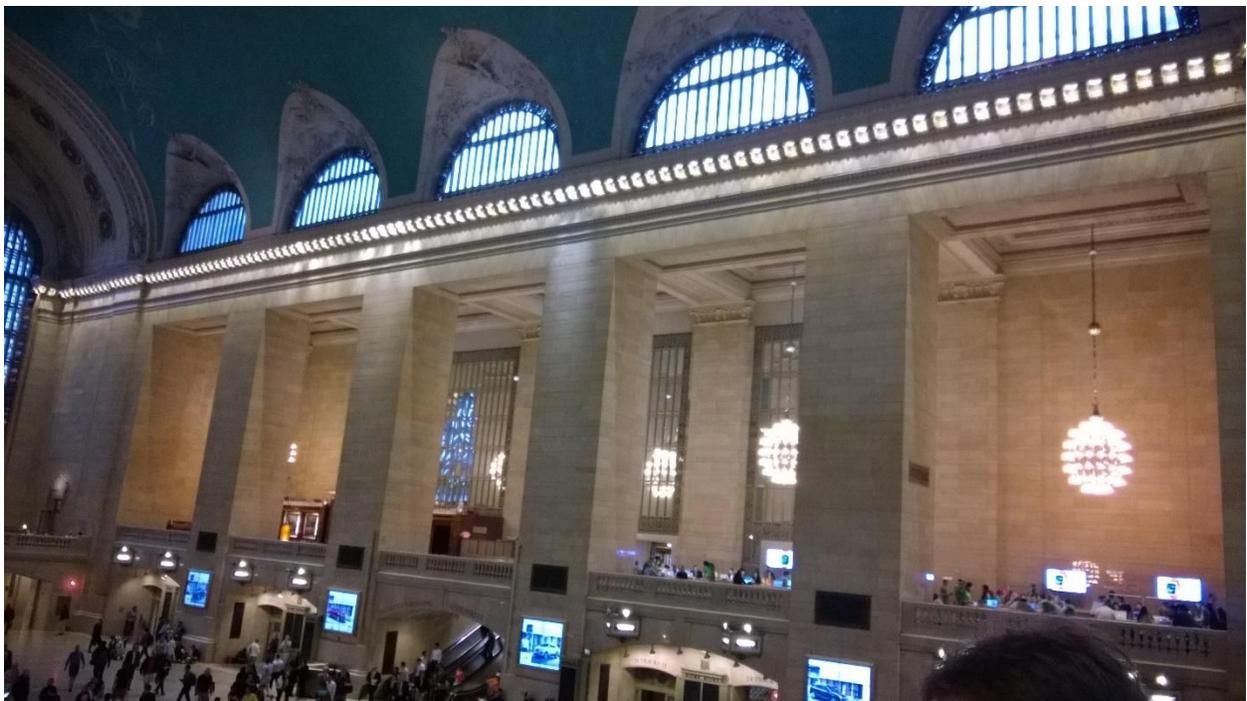

[Photos taken by Frances Hernandez]

Main entrance located on 42nd Street and Park Avenue.

This image demonstrates the use of barrel vault with a clear view of the ceiling's mural of the zodiacal constellation.

Demonstration of piers.

A demonstration of fenestration.

Penn Station

Penn Station's concourse view from the southeast.

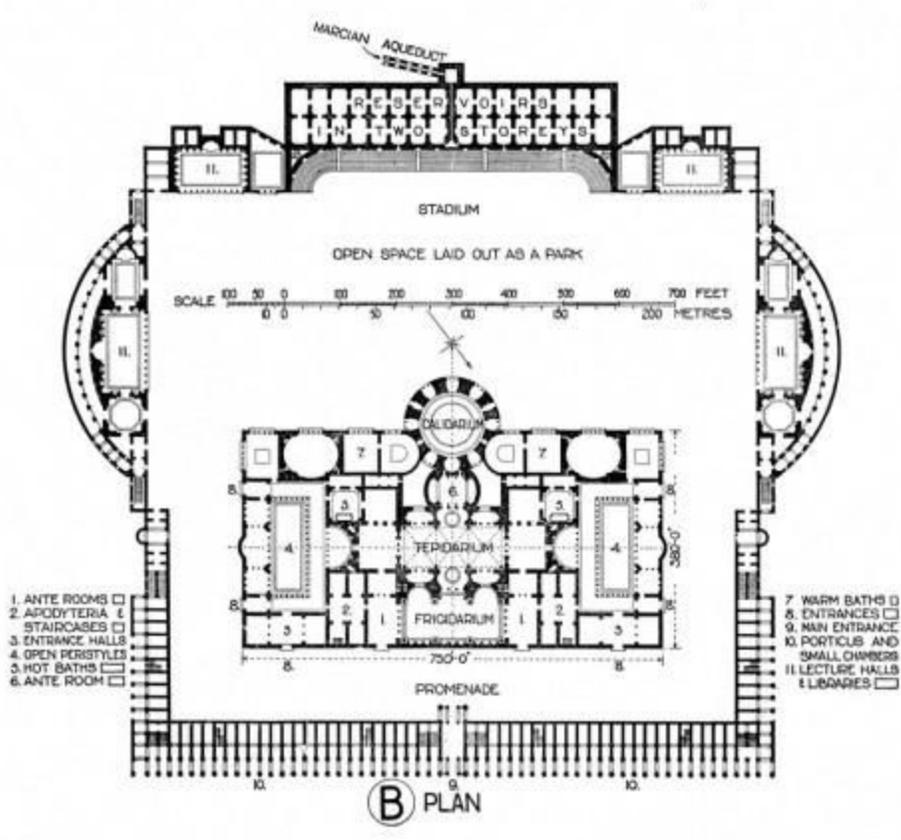

Robinson, Cervin. "8. Historic American Buildings Survey, Cervin Robinson, Photographer April 24, 1962, CONCOURSE FROM SOUTHEAST. - Pennsylvania Station, 370 Seventh Avenue, West Thirty-first, Thirty-first-Thirty-third Streets, New York County, NY." Photograph, Historic American Buildings Survey/Historic American Engineering Record/Historic American Landscapes Survey, 1962. From Prints and Photographs Division, Library of Congress (HABS NY,31-NEYO,78--8; <http://www.loc.gov/pictures/item/ny0411.photos.119996p> accessed June 29, 2016).

Facade from the Northeast.

Robinson, Cervin. "3. Historic American Buildings Survey, Cervin Robinson, Photographer May 5, 1962, SOUTH (31st Street) FACADE FROM SOUTHEAST. - Pennsylvania Station, 370 Seventh Avenue, West Thirty-first, Thirty-first-Thirty-third Streets, New York County, NY." Photograph, Historic American Buildings Survey/Historic American Engineering Record/Historic American Landscapes Survey, 1962. From Prints and Photographs Division, Library of Congress (HABS HABS NY,31-NEYO,78--3; <http://www.loc.gov/pictures/item/ny0411.photos.119991p> accessed June 29, 2016).

Baths of Caracalla

Floor Plan of the Baths of Caracalla

Fletcher, B. (n.d.). Plan of the Baths of Caracalla. Retrieved June 29, 2016, from <http://www.ancient.eu/image/1173/>