

CALL FOR ENTRIES

SUBMISSION
DEADLINE
MARCH 4th

City Tech's 41st Annual Literary Arts Festival Writing Competition

City Tech Students: We want to hear your voice, your story, your words!

Please submit writing in any genre; poetry, fiction, non-fiction, speeches, journalism, multimodal work, photo essays, videos, animation, spoken-word performances, and more.

All creative work is welcome!

Submission Guidelines

- Written Work: 1,000 words maximum; Videos/Performance Art should be between 10 seconds and 5 minutes.
- To submit your work, please visit the City Tech Literary Arts Festival OpenLab Website.
- You will be asked to fill out a form and upload your written work. Do not include your name in the submission attachment.
- For large files or videos, please include a URL link or send your work to CitytechLaf@gmail.com.
- Award categories include: the Adolphus Lee Poetry Award, the Charles Matusik Fiction Award, the Kay-Hirsch Literary Criticism Award, the Michele Forsten Advocacy Award, the Walter-Scanlon Creative Non-Fiction Award, the Aaron Barlow Journalism Award, and the Mary Nilles Multimodal Writing Award.
- Competition winners receive monetary awards and a possible reading at the Literary Arts Festival, a virtual event to be held on on March 24th at 4:30 p.m.

SAVE THE DATE FOR LAF 2022

featuring award-winning poet Layli Long Soldier & City Tech Students
Thursday, March 24, 2022, 4:30 pm on Zoom

Free & Open to the Public

For more information: Megan Behrent mbehrent@citytech.cuny.edu
Sponsored by:

