For the t-shirt project, I decided to take a plain white sleeveless t-shirt with a small knot at the bottom. I added some pink stars to the neck of the shirt, along with some white flowers 3 in total. After gluing the neck edge with the pink stars, I glued on some round and flower-shaped diamonds with the round diamonds I made into a diamond shape. Then I added a rainbow pattern and some phrases in the center and ironed it on. Iron-on patches. Place some small golden arrow-shaped drawings and another of a crown on the bottom of the t-shirt. On the back of the shirt, draw a flower and iron it. An iron-on patch. In each corner of the t-shirt, put some gold letters like Positive, Believe, Good day, You got this, Good day, and Kindness.

This shirt represents how I define myself in terms of gender, dress, and society because it defines who I am. On the front of the shirt, I decided to draw a rainbow, since for me a rainbow means that everything bad has passed and peace of mind comes. As a woman, I am constantly working every day to become the best version of myself that I can be. I want to achieve things by myself and feel proud of everything that I have achieved. I try not to worry too much about problems. I know that everything has a solution and there is always a way out. I inserted three white flowers because they symbolize my dad, mom, and sister. My family always gives me peace and tranquility. We should all strive for peace of mind so that it does not negatively affect our health. On the back of the shirt, I wrote motivational words. I always like to motivate people that we are capable of doing anything we set our minds to. Nothing is impossible. It is crucial to believe in ourselves that we can achieve our goals with the right effort. To have a good day you have to be positive that everything will be fine. By having positive vibes and showing kindness to others, we can manage to raise someone's spirits and make them feel better.
