

NEW YORK PUBLIC LIBRARY

OUR MISSION

At New York Public Library, our goal is to let our guests inspire, teach, and achieve knowledge. We are the nation's largest public library system and are only getting bigger. We have been providing books, documents, and access to information for over 100 years.

PROGRAMS

At the New York Public Library, there over 100,000 different types of programs, aimed for a wide range for people. Some are free educational programs, premium research assistance, access to a diverse collection books and materials, and more. The Science, Industry and Business Library offers job search assistance, personal finance workshops, and business help for entrepreneurs.

Outreach Services and Adult Programming is committed to meeting the needs of the underserved, as well as assisting people with special needs. Each of these programs can be access through one of the library's 92 locations all around New York City.

RESOURCES

The New York Public Library has over 55 million items, to lend out to their visitors. Guests can gain items access to journals and magazines, historical newspapers, reference works, and children's resources. Guests also have access to online exhibitions and over 800,000 images based on a wide range of multimedia subjects.
