hi Euisuk: So glad you held on to your accepted manuscript. Now all I need is your permission to upload it to Academic Works here: <http://academicworks.cuny.edu/agreement.html>

I will set the record to follow the embargo / waiting period as per your contract and the publisher's policies.
best, Monica

Hi Monica,

I am humbled by your kind words. This work took about three years to be published after several revisions and rejections. Please find the attached file, which I edited the final version looks similar to the final publication. The journal agreement indicates a one-year embargo period. Its first publication date is September 22, 2022, so the embargo period ends on September 22, 2023. Please set up its release data accordingly.

Thank you!
Euisuk
