Dear Monica,

Thank you for your work on this. The faculty loved it and I am asking for them to provide feedback at the end of the semester so that we can make any necessary changes. I think the students appreciated it but I am unsure how many used it. I will inform everyone of the OL widget this will make access even easier.

hi Karen: Hope you're doing well!

Just a note that it would be great to include the HMGT1101 guide that I created into the various OpenLab sections for HMGT1101.

There now is a widget that makes it fairly easy to add library guides.

I'll try to follow up with you after the semester is over and you might have more bandwidth. best, Monica

Dear Monica,

The site looks good, valuable information.

Regarding the PPP. I believe that the information on slides 2, 3, 4, 6, and 7 could be added to the webpage you are developing. The rest of the information must have classroom context to make it have deep value.

Howdy Karen: I did a fast draft of the guide here: <https://libguides.citytech.cuny.edu/hmgt1101>

Please send updates & corrections if needed. I will review this again in a few days. Best, Monica

Hi Monica,

I hope you are well!

I would like to take this opportunity express my appreciation to you for leading the Library Information Session for my class on September 30th.

I am looking over some of the student's submissions for the Industry Profile assignment and see a marked improvement in their understanding of selecting relevant and credible source for their research.

Thank you again,

John Akana-

Hi Monica

Thank you again for your time this morning. Rest assured that I will reiterate your message of researching efficiently and effectively using our resources. I teach the Dining Room Service class on Monday evenings so if you feel like having dinner with us, drop me a line.

Best

hi everyone: The class went very well--there was a healthy level of participation and I think the learning outcomes were basically achieved. In addition to the usual library overview and my typical lesson plan for this course, we spent some time discussing why we need to provide a citation. Most of the workshop was focused on the critical thinking goals.

None of the students came prepared with a company/person and most seemed not to have reviewed the OpenLab so I gave them 10 minutes to do so.

We did a mix of free searching and guided searching/exploration for the company or person they potentially would explore and went from:

google --> company website --> ny times --> hospitality and tourism complete

We switched back and forth from their company to the Marriott.

We concluded with a brief demo of Statista, the citation/APA piece of the workshop and Q & A.

Hi Karen and Monica,

I have all the info.

Monica, I need to bring the students up around 9:15 - I have a meeting at 9:30. I will take attendance again once we are up there. Do I meet you outside the library since I do not know which class. I am going to the class at 8:30 so text me if you need to contact me 917-689-1184.

Thanks,

Liz
