

Skim the source and discuss with your group. Then answer the questions below. Each group needs to appoint one recorder to take notes and one reporter to report back to the class.

Write the title of the source here: _____

What kind of source is this? Be as specific as possible (ex. Newspaper article, journal article, book, blog post, book review, etc.)

Is it an academic source? How can you tell?

Is it a reliable source? How can you tell?

What is the purpose of the source and who is the intended audience?

Is the source biased?

Do you think the author was paid to write this source? Why or why not?