

5). Develop a brand logo that represents you?

6). Write a mission statement about yourself as a company

Miranda mission statement for the company would be stay true to yourself. Many people will give you advice that you won't always agree with but it's okay to think differently. Everyone pathways in life work in a different way. All you need to keep in mind is to use what you have as a power. Your strength and personality is something that makes you different which allow you be capable of something that someone else can't do.

7). What would be your direction ?

Miranda direction would be to build on her future. She would like to create a strong foundation. She would want her brand to always have a plan B in the situation. She would want to continue to work on herself. She would be open to work on different skill set so it brings in more opportunities.

8). What would be your opportunity?

Miranda has many opportunities in this lifetime. Starting off with one opportunity would be having good health and strength. She is thankful to live a life where she can have the opportunity to do what she wants. She has an opportunity to make more business decisions. She can create a name for herself. She has the opportunity to be the boss of her own business.