ANNOYING & AWESOME THINGS

LET ME GET OFF

Something that annoys me is when people don't let you get off the train before they get on. They shove everyone exiting the train just to get in when they can wait until everyone has gotten off. This makes it harder for people to get off, consumes time, and could cause injuries. -S.S.

NERVOUSNESS

You know what you are doing, but you just cannot do it. To try and to fail, you just cannot help it. But to tremble before you even attempt it. It will always be there, so just go attempt it. -J.A.

SUNSETS

Something I find awesome is sunsets. Since I was a kid, I've always admired the different color changes in the sky. I feel at peace and happy when I see it every time. -M.J.

OLD ERASER

I get really annoyed whenever I am drawing, and I go to erase but the eraser turns out to be hard as a rock. It just smudges the whole picture. Makes me have to start all over. -A.E.

DISRESPECTFUL

When people do not respect their elders, partners, or strangers. When I see people do this my blood boils. It makes me think "don't they have grandmothers, a mother, or a sister". The sad thing is that this constantly comes to mind no matter where I am. -P.A.

VIVID DREAMS

"It is awesome when I have vivid dreams and wake to search the meaning" -M.A.J.

MY CAT

When I am asleep, my cat gets trapped in my room with me and begins throwing materials off my desk to wake me up. When I am trying to focus on working on my computer, he wants to wrestle my hands. -F.L.

EARLY MAIL

I am overjoyed when an international package I ordered arrives in the mail early. -L.E.D.

SYSTEM MALFUNCTION

The noises my old personal computer used to make when it was crashing for no reason weren't pleasant to me in the slightest, so this is still annoying when my laptop starts lagging whether it would be repeating video over and over again or parts of open windows flickering in and out. -A.G.

LITTERING

I despise having to walk around in the city and seeing litter all over the floor. It is very simple to keep your trash until you see a garbage can to throw it all out. But having to throw it where people walk is very annoying, especially when someone has to pick up someone else's trash. -A.A.

SLOW WALKING

I hate when people walk in front of me very slow, especially in New York city. When I'm in a hurry and someone is texting and starts to slow down in front of me, it gives me the biggest irk. It's very annoying. -N.M.

ALARM CLOCKS

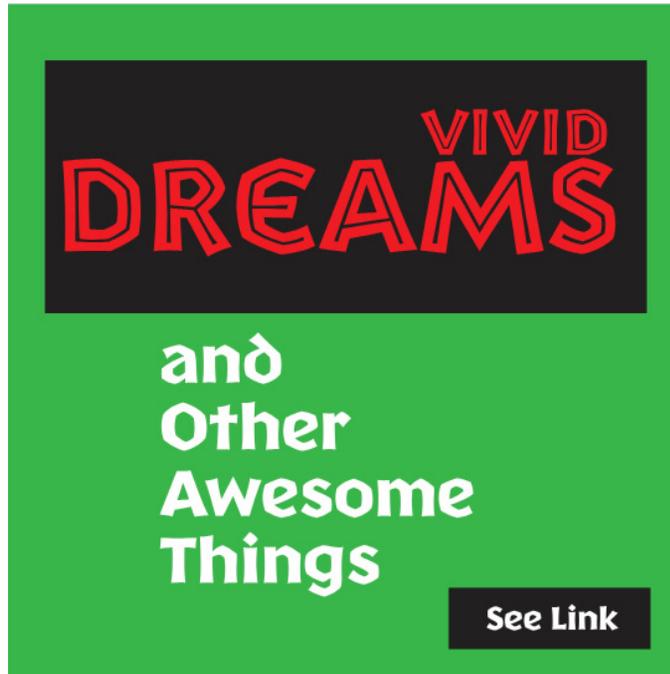

Alarm clocks are unbearably annoying due to how loud we need them to be in order to wake us up, how it disrupts our sleep just as it was getting good, and how if an alarm goes off in the middle of the day, our fight or flight kicks in. -C.J.

STOP TALKING

Something I find annoying is people who don't stop talking. One reason being is that it breaks my concentration. -R.B.

EARN & BUY

I feel amazing when I am able to earn my own money and with my own efforts, buy things that I like. -B.C.
