

Things Have Change

20
07

NEW YEAR

The meaning I meant for this design was for the fact that since 2020 have started things just haven't been the same. The fact that we already have a new president and there is hope for the vaccine means things have change a lot. Their has been so many that we have lost and that we wished could have stayed with us.