Activity #4

Read, Research, & Respond:

Read

Visit the Games for Change Game Archive. (<https://www.gamesforchange.org/games/>)
Browse through the games until you find one that interests you.

Research

Research the game:

- Read the synopsis.
- Look at the graphics.
- If you can, try playing it!
- If there's a video trailer, watch it.

Respond

Write a brief (250-500 word) review of the game in question.

At the minimum, your response should include:

- The game's name
- Who made it
- A brief summary of the game
- When it was released
- An analysis of the game that follows the VAP game-design rubric:
 - pink (describe the game),
 - orange (the social issue it deals with),
 - green (game mechanics)
 - and
 - blue (values).

To review the VAP game-design cards concept, visit the VAP / Grow-a-Game website, or check out this word doc which provides a sample list of games, issues, actions and values.

Submit this response on the "activity04" Slack channel.

All responses due by 9:59AM before Class 8, to be discussed in class.

BONUS PARTICIPATION CREDIT: Read and meaningfully respond to the responses of your peers!
