

Resume

Monica Peters

Brooklyn, NY 11226

Experience:

2009- Current NYU Lutheran Medical Center, Brooklyn, NY

Staff Nurse

Emergency Department

Medical/surgical ICU

Serves as staff nurse in fast paced, high acuity emergency room. Able to adapt to frequently changing patient population and environmental conditions; excellent critical thinking skills; excellent communication skills; culturally competent in dealing with diverse; Proficient in caring for the critically ill.

2003-2009 Cottonwood Hospital/ Inter Mountain Medical Center,

Salt Lake City, Utah

– Staff Nurse

2003-2007 Medical/Surgical ICU

2007-2009 Stock /Trauma ICU

Served as a Staff/Charge RN caring for patients with life threatening illnesses, massive trauma, post-operative transplant with complications (liver, kidney, and pancreas); post-operative cardiac catheterization with complications; skilled in hemodynamic monitoring; telemetry, ventilator and ultra-filtration administration and care. Nursing practice council member for improvement and compliance in effective patient care. Preceptor to new staff as well as nursing students. Served as a champion in healing connections by practicing and teaching the significance of making a healing connection with patients and families, stressing the difference noted in patient and family confidence, improved patient outcomes, and decrease in length of hospital stay.

1997 – 2003 Lutheran Hospital, Fort Wayne, Indiana

Staff Nurse

Level 1 Trauma Center, Surgical ICU

Completely cared for the critically ill and trauma patient. Care included assistance with insertion of intra-aortic balloon pumps, care of patient's post-operative CABG procedures as well as patients who suffered massive trauma. Assisted with placement and management of ICP bolts, extra ventricular drains; swan, CVP and A –line insertions. Managed, and transported patients to test and procedures. Maintained a high degree of accuracy to achieve optimal patient monitoring; Improved facilities public image by ensuring exceptional patient satisfaction..

1990 – 1990 Brookdale Hospital, Brooklyn, N.Y.

Staff Nurse

Medical ICU

Delivered complete care to the critically ill patients; assisted with placement and management of critical lines, drains, and tubes. Accurately obtained and documented patients' history, assessment and pertinent findings.

1988 –1990 Interim Health Care, Benton Harbor, Michigan (Nursing Agency)

Per Diem, RN

Provided direct nursing care for nursing home, long-term care, and hospitalized patients.

1986 -1988 Kings County Hospital Center, Brooklyn, New York

Staff Nurse

Medical/Surgical ICU

Effectively assigned staff to ensure patient acuity met, and effective patient care delivered.

Education:

1983 – 1985 New York City Technical College, Brooklyn, New York – Graduated

AAS Degree in Nursing

1987 – 1988 Medger Evers College, Brooklyn, New York

2015 – Current New York City College of Technology, Brooklyn, New York

BS in Nursing

Proficiencies:

Ventilator; Telemetry; intravenous line placement and infusion therapy; phlebotomy; hemodynamic monitoring; balloon pump; CVVHD; ICP monitoring; patient and family education.

Current Licensure:

State of New York, RN

Certifications:

ACLS/BLS/PALS

TNCC

NIHSS/CCRN