To Whom It May Concern:

Ms. Nathali Ceballos is successful graduate New York City College of Technology Department of Nursing rigorous Associate Degree Program and currently enrolled in our Baccalaureate Nursing Program for the Fall 2018 semester.

I have had the personal privilege of having Ms. Ceballos in my didactic course. Ms. Ceballos was always eager to learn, is a very compassionate individual who has the discipline to be successful. Ms. Ceballos is fluent in Spanish. Some of her attributes that I found to be valuable are her ability to critically think and display a deep understanding of acquired conceptual knowledge. It is my belief that she will be an excellent addition to your facility.

Respectfully,

Dr. Lisette Santisteban, PhD, RNC-OB, MSN-ED,
Assistant Professor
