

[ ABOUT MARIANNA MOLIVER ]

Marianna Moliver is a Trusts & Estates attorney and Principal of Moliver Law. Her practice focuses on domestic and international Estate Planning, Elder Law and Probate. Marianna advises individuals and their families in the areas of wealth preservation, probate avoidance, estate and gift tax planning, elder law planning, family business planning and asset protection. She skillfully combines her knowledge of tax law with a commitment to carrying out a client's wishes, often in the context of complex or adversarial family relationships. Additionally, she counsels fiduciaries in the probate / administration of estates and trusts and represents fiduciaries in Surrogate's Court proceedings and other probate / administration matters. Marianna Moliver has published various articles and lectured in her field. She is admitted to practice in NY and NJ, and speaks Russian fluently. Marianna graduated cum laude from the University of Pennsylvania and received her J.D. from the Benjamin N. Cardozo School of Law.

For additional information, please contact:

Marianna Moliver, Esq / 646-389-5727 / Marianna@moliverlaw.com

[ ABOUT METROPOLITAN COMMERCIAL BANK ]

Metropolitan Commercial Bank, headquartered in New York City is a community-focused commercial bank offering a broad array of financial products delivered with high-quality, personal customer service. The Bank's positioning – Personal Service | Global Perspective – is not just its brand, but also its corporate focus. Metropolitan is continually building its long-term franchise while paying strict attention to asset quality and expense management. Metropolitan provides a full range of financial products to commercial and consumer clients including deposit, loan and cash management services.

For additional information, please contact:

Joseph Seibert / Vice President / Metropolitan Commercial Bank / 212-643-6981 / jseibert@metropolitanbankny.com

