VOLUNTEER AND CO-CURRICULAR WORK

1. I've always been an advocate for world hunger and I support small organizations like #hashtaglunchbag, Care.org, No Kid Hungry, Unicef and Unicef El Salvador
2. The aftermath of Hurricane season can be devastating to endure therefore I am committed to help with clean ups.
3. Mental health is very important to worry about. As an advocate for it I would like to one day be a director of an organization that can help many.
4. Aside from world hunger and mental health I am also an advocate for human rights, especially for minority groups such as immigrants worldwide.

STRENGTHS

1. Whether it's at work, school or personal I have exceptional multitasker skills.
2. Throughout the years I have been employed I always demonstrate great leadership skills which rewards me with a higher position at work.
3. Having a strong background in sales, I've been able to excel on my customer service.
4. In every job I've had I have always led my team to exceed brand standards and sales goals through communication and management.
5. During my years at New York City College of Technology I've been able to provide exceptional teamwork on course projects.

LIFE EXPERIENCES

1. The one that has impacted me the most has been dealing with depression.
2. Leaving my country when I was eight years old was very difficult especially because I was under the supervision of strangers.
3. Being a victim of a fraud can most certainly cause you to reach a level of depression. I unfortunately was a victim four years ago.
4. My first internship ever was at KCD Worldwide, one of the leading public relations firms in the world.

PERSONAL SHORT TERM GOALS

1. Open up a cleaning service.
2. Publish two blogs, one will focus on plant based foods and the other on my journey through life.
3. Take a trip to four different cities.
4. Pursue my master degree by double majoring in Marketing and Psychology.

PROFESSIONAL SHORT TERM GOALS

1. Once having graduated from New York City College of Technology, I became an account coordinator at KCD Worldwide.
2. Become a brand ambassador for the organizations I support.

PASSIONS

1. My passion in life is to become a Chief Marketing Officer
2. Become financially stable
3. Own multiple businesses

PERSONAL LONG TERM GOALS

1. Truthfully I just want to become a great role model for my kids
2. Maintain a strong peaceful state of mind
3. Maintain a healthier lifestyle in order to age like Jennifer Lopez
4. Be financially stable.

WORK EXPERIENCES

My work experiences have definitely played a factor in my life. The reason I have an exceptional work ethic is because I have worked with strong, independent women who want to see me succeed in life. I have always worked in sales which has helped me not lose the love I have for marketing, sales and just management in general.

NETWORK

Having an outgoing personality is a major advantage for the fashion and marketing industry because it allows me to feel confident enough to have a conversation with others. When attending fashion shows or any networking event It's easy for me to connect with others and be able to create a professional bond with them. During my time at KCD Worldwide and PR Consulting I was given many opportunities to attend networking events where I met people who were very passionate about their work and future projects. Networking events are great to attend because they helped me become more motivated and gave me ideas for future projects.

PROFESSIONAL LONG-TERM GOALS

1. As a businesswoman I would like my businesses to represent a lasting legacy not just within my family but with the public.
2. A major goal of mine is to use my business's financial growth in order to help others who are hungry, homeless, need guidance to start their own business, etc.
