Soccer moves for starters and pros

For starters most should start by learning how to kick a soccer ball then learn how stop then once you get the easy steps you can decide a position you would like to play. For example if you chose to be a defender you can start with learning how to slide tackle and body players and run fast.

For the pros you can learn how to do cool moves like the maradona, V-pull, around the world, and stop and go

Reasons for Genre

The reason I chose this genre is because I love soccer and me and my whole family watch soccer games every weekend. The reason I talked about Mbappe and Messi is because they have achieved many goals in the world of soccer and they inspire me. I chose this type of design which is a dark background because it makes the words clearer for the audience to be able to read. The Barca academy can give kids opportunity to be professionals.
