I chose a public service announcement and the reason why I chose it is because I want to do a poster and this service announcement is really important to newcomers and a big community and age is 13 and older people. And my topic/question is Why does it take so long to give papers to immigration? And I mean by newcomers people that don't have papers or have a green card and looking to become a citizen in the United States and the big community are newcomers and citizen childrens that are trying to help their parents and family that are not citizen so they want to help their family to live better and to have a good job and not have to worry about the government and not being separate from their family and the reason why I say age of 13 because when I was growing up there were people at the age trying to find ways to get their parents to become citizen and also the age of 13 alot of newcomers come in United States at a young age because some of my family members and friends parents came to United States at the age of 10,13,14,15,16....etc and my parents came over here at a young age. And some people have been living here for 20 years and still haven't got papers either because they are nervous and scared to do their papers and worry something is going to happen to them or they are thinking of going back to their home land so for them they don't think it worth it to do it. So I want to do this so it can make life easy and not to worry about it and to know it is easy to do. I will share this to anyone and it public because this can really be someone that wants to become a citizen. And I know how it feels to have parents that didn't had paper they had low pay jobs and they was also worry about the government and they have also thought leaving United States to go back to their hometown so I have live through it and also know people that had went through the same and people might concern this topic because it important and it can help someone that going through same.

The five traits of public service announcement and the positive side of it gets the audience to pay attention, the message is clear and easy to understand, the message is supported by facts about the issue, the audience is able to sympathize with those affected by the issue, and it will be beneficial in several ways.
