ENGL 1101

Unit 3 Project

The germ from which a life is borne lies in the early stages of childhood.
The delicate hand of upbringing shapes
the spirit on the shifting sands of existence

Whispering in the air,
Influence is like a tapestry made with threads of caring.
sound of the parents, an old tune,
They are part of every beating heart

Either in modest houses or lavish corridors, upbringing permeates the walls,
Financial hardships or prosperous times,
A wonderful melody that soars to the heavens

The color of old and new perspectives is painted by culture.
Traditions guided footsteps in the great game of life,

passing on like a torch ablaze.

Still, decisions remain in the open,
welcoming risk and rejecting echoes,
Freedom, a compass rather than a chain,
dances in the rain and sun of upbringing.

Character forged in schools of affluence or adversity unparalleled.

Lessons from friendship,
the grace of laughing, heart-molding,
and the treasured imprint of life

Thus, upbringing weaves its ethereal dance, in the swirl of fate and chance.

A complex and varied symphony of elements that determine,
a person's fate and constitutes life itself.

the purpose of this existence and what it ought to be.
