Recorded Sessions

Students who participate in this class with their camera on or use a profile image are agreeing to have their video or image recorded solely for the purpose of creating a record for students enrolled in the class to refer to, including those enrolled students who are unable to attend live. If you are unwilling to consent to have your profile or video image recorded, be sure to keep your camera off and do not use a profile image. Likewise, students who un-mute during class and participate orally are agreeing to have their voices recorded. If you are not willing to consent to have your voice recorded during class, you will need to keep your mute button activated and communicate exclusively using the "chat" feature, which allows students to type questions and comments live.

Writing Rubric

(Modified from AAC&U VALUE Rubric)

| Performance Indicator | No Proficiency | Some Proficiency | Proficiency | High Proficiency |
|--|---|--|--|---|
| Context and Purpose for Writing (includes consideration of audience & circumstances surrounding the task) | Minimal attention to context, audience, purpose, and to the assigned task(s). | Some evidence of awareness of context, audience, purpose, and the assigned task(s); begins to show awareness of audience's perceptions and assumptions. | Adequate consideration of context, audience, and purpose with a focus on the assigned task(s). | Thorough understanding of context, audience, and purpose that is responsive to the assigned task(s). |
| Format | Does not adhere to standardized format (APA, MLA, etc.) or given instructions; no sense of introduction, body, conclusion; does not contain all sections required; handwritten/sloppy in appearance. | Minimally follows the standardized format or given instructions; some sense of organization and structure; contains all sections, but the content within each section is not appropriate. | Mostly follows the standardized format or given instructions; contains all sections, whose content is generally correct with only occasional lapses; minor edits are required. | Accurately follows the standardized format or given instructions; all sections are present and clearly labeled; each section contains all of the appropriate information. |
| Language | Numerous errors in spelling, grammar, verb tense and punctuation; no paragraphs; numerous fragmented sentences; extremely limited vocabulary; use of language impedes meaning because of errors in usage. | Several instances of grammatical errors and demonstrates a lack of editing; sentence structure is simplistic, little variety, although there are errors; uses language that conveys meaning to readers. | Few errors in spelling, grammar, verb tense and punctuation; sentence structure (subject and predicate) is generally correct although still simplistic and occasionally repetitious; generally straightforward language that conveys meaning to the readers. | Very few errors in sentence structure and mechanics; exhibits good to excellent command of language and professional terminology; sentences are complex and vocabulary is sophisticated; skillfully communicates meaning to readers with clarity and fluency. |
| Communication | Does not articulate thoughts or ideas; organization of the document is not clear enough for reader to follow arguments; lacks focus and fluency in writing. | Thoughts are expressed using vague language; attempts to convey main ideas of the paper but lacks focus and fluency; overall document is somewhat confusing. | Thoughts are organized and the main ideas are exposed, but some connections are not clearly supported by the written text; topic presented (or proof if applicable) is clear, with very minor lapses. | Thoughts are carefully organized and allows reader to easily follow all of the arguments; no lapses in logic or clarity; thoughts are clearly expressed with focus and fluency. |
| Analysis/Synthesis | Demonstrates little understanding of what the important data/content that should be presented; comments, if present, are superficial or not related to the main topic discussed; does not identify significant professional standard findings; analysis of important points (or data) is lacking. | Statement of important results/content is incomplete; some personal comments are present but not particularly relevant for the discussion; identifies the critical elements but does not demonstrate an accurate comprehension of the concept; analysis of important points (or data) is incoherent and/or incomplete. | Statement of the important results are clear and complete but may include too much information or information that is not relevant; analysis of important points (or data) is well thought out but lacks a few important points; relevant comments or real world connections are included. | Successfully performed a thorough analysis; all important results/arguments are clearly identified and motivated; presence of significant personal comments and observations prove a real understanding of the topic. |
| Supporting Evidence | Does not attempt to use sources to support ideas in the writing, or provides inappropriate sources. | Demonstrates an attempt to use credible and/or relevant sources to support ideas that are appropriate for the discipline and genre of the writing. | Demonstrates consistent use of credible, relevant sources to support ideas that are situated within the discipline and genre of the writing. | Demonstrates skillful use of high-quality, credible, relevant sources to develop ideas that are appropriate for the discipline and genre of the writing. |

Professionalism and Participation

The Department of Hospitality Management follows industry standards in order to educate, develop and mentor future hospitality and tourism professionals. In order to successfully complete a course, students must consistently participate in class and meet deadlines

NYC College of Technology Statement on Academic Integrity

Students and all others who work with information, ideas, texts, images, music, inventions, and other intellectual property owe their audience and sources accuracy and honesty in using, crediting, and citing sources. As a community of intellectual and professional workers, the College recognizes its responsibility for providing instruction in information literacy and academic integrity, offering models of good practice, and responding vigilantly and appropriately to infractions of academic integrity. Accordingly, academic dishonesty is prohibited in The City University of New York and at New York City College of Technology and is punishable by penalties, including failing grades, suspension, and expulsion.

As stated in the Academic Integrity Policy Manual,

"academic dishonesty occurs when individuals plagiarize or cheat in the course of their academic work. Plagiarism is the presenting of someone else's ideas without proper credit or attribution. Cheating is the unauthorized use or attempted use of material, information, notes, study aids, devices or communication during an academic exercise."

The complete text of the College Academic Integrity Policy Manual may be found on the College website.

Statement of Classroom Behavior

Each student has the right to study and learn in a comfortable, safe, supportive environment that promotes self-esteem – free of fear, humiliation, intimidation, offensive or suggestive language.

Use of Electronic Devices (n/a during distance learning)

The use of cellular phones and audio equipment in all academic and study areas of the college is prohibited. Students are not permitted to take calls or text message during class. Students may not use their cell phones as calculators. In some instances, an instructor may allow the use of personal electronic devices for in class activities.

Writing Style Statement

The hospitality management department requires that all written work must be prepared using APA Style Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association as a reference guide. This includes editorial formats, abbreviations, use of statistics, graphs, citations and references. Visit the City Tech Library website for APA Style Guides.
