

<https://wbcnyc.org/aim/>

MAKE 2023 YOUR RESET YEAR

Now is the time to look at you –your leadership capabilities and your technical and business skill sets and the way you package and present yourself for growth in the coming year.

The 2023 AIM National Women's Leadership Forum is designed to help you identify your strengths, build your confidence and becoming the best version of you in your personal and professional lives.

All women – from the workplace and the workforce to business owners and college students – will find information and experiences to help them grow.

Who Should Attend and Why?

PATHWAY 1

Women in corporate and enterprise sectors at all levels from senior management, mid-tier and entry levels.
(General Attendees)

PATHWAY 2

Tradeswomen and Superintendents in the field and aspiring tradeswomen.

PATHWAY 3

Undergraduate and Graduate Students across multiple disciplines (architecture, engineering, construction, real estate, public administration, law, finance as well as students who are considering careers in the field). Career-Focused High School Students from select career-education high schools.

If interested in attending, email Professor Villatoro your name and EMPLID by February 24
mvillatoro@citytech.cuny.edu