General Questions:

➤What things did you think went well on the project? (Answer the following in 2-3 sentences)
The ideation processes was the smoothest phase of the project. It allowed me to think outside the box in order to try to solve real world issues. It was something I thoroughly enjoyed.

➤What was the single most frustrating part of the project? (Answer the following in 2-3 sentences)
The prototyping phase; it was new to me and there were plenty of misunderstandings. In retrospect I appreciate the obstacles that were presented, it allowed me to truly understand the effort needed to realize an idea.

➤How would you do things differently next time to avoid this frustration? (Answer the following in 2-3 sentences)
I'll allow myself more time to thoroughly plan the prototyping process. I'll evaluate the parameters and make sure to ask enough questions.

➤Were there any other issues/changes that should be considered? Please offer suggestions for methods of improvement. (Answer the following in 2-3 sentences)
Yes, I realized that the interface was not as seamless as it should have been. Additionally there may be some privacy issues.

➤Iterative Solution 1: Based on your design critique, provide an additional solution to the design problem at hand. (Answer the following in 2-3 sentences)
I'd possibly change the orientation of the layout or readjust some of the key areas of the application. Make it much more precise and efficient.

➤Accompanying Outcome 1: Based on your design critique, provide an additional outcome to the design problem at hand. (Answer the following in 2-3 sentences)
It was brought up to my attention that there may be some privacy issues some users may not want the option to connect to Facebook or have their health broadcasted to various people.

➤Iterative Solution 2: Based on your design critique, provide an additional solution to the design problem at hand. (Answer the following in 2-3 sentences)
What I may do is have the option to choose who would see your information. So that the user may still be held accountable and also have incentives to continue.