Outline/ Questions

Outline:

I. Intro

A. Opener- Self-image sets the boundaries of individual accomplishment. How can one's own boundaries be viewed as an accomplishment?

B. Thesis- This essay is about the traditional background and inspiration behind my decision to wear the hijab, but yet the ultimate struggle to fit in with society.

II. Body

A. Traditional background- The history of the hijab and the purpose it was to me.

B. Inspiration- How my view of the hijab changed while my sister started wearing it.

C. Struggle- How my view developed due to the fact that I started wearing it.

III. Conclusion

A. Thesis - Due to my traditional background and my sisters inspiration I was able to make the decision of wearing the scarf, but left me with many struggles to face.

B. Bigger meaning- The decision of changing our self image depends very much on whether or not we are able to face the struggles that come with it.

C. Closure- Overall, living in such a diverse society, we tend to turn a blind eye on our own differences and judge with what we see and fail to try to understand.
