

Steven "Steve" Jobs

By: Raylissa Rivera

Who is he

- Jobs was an American entrepreneur and inventor
- Jobs is best known as the co-founder, chairman and CEO of Apple Inc.

Growing Up

- Jobs was born February 24, 1995.
- He was put up for adoption
- He was adopted by Paul and Clara Jobs.
- He lived in Mountain View, California.

Education

- He attended Monta Loma Elementary school in Mountain View, California where he often played pranks on the other kids.
- Since his test grades were very high school officials wanted to skip him two grades but he only skipped one.
- He attended Cupertino Junior High and Homestead High School in Cupertino, California.
- He graduated in 1972.
- He enrolled at Reed College in Portland, Oregon.
- 6 months later he dropped out because his parents couldn't afford. So he dropped in on creative classes.

Early Career

- In 1973, he took a job as a technician for Atari.
- He left to India and came back with a shaved head and wearing traditional Indian clothing.
- In 1975 Jobs and Wozniak began attending meeting for the Homebrew Computer Club.
- In 1976 Jobs and Wozniak created their own business naming it "Apple Computer Company" selling circuit boards.

Apple

- In 1983 Jobs asked John Sculley to be the Apple's CEO.
- On May 24th, 1985 Jobs was demoted of his managerial duties as head of the Macintosh division.
- He resigned from Apple 5 months later.
- He then founded NeXT Inc. that same year.

NeXT

- He founded NeXT Computer with $7 million.
- NeXT workstations were released in 1990, priced at $9,999.
- The second-generation NeXTcube was released in 1990.
- The NeXTcube could share voice, image, graphics and video in email.
- NeXT transitioned to software development releasing NeXTSTEP/Intel.
- In 1997, NeXT was acquired by Apple Inc.

Pixar

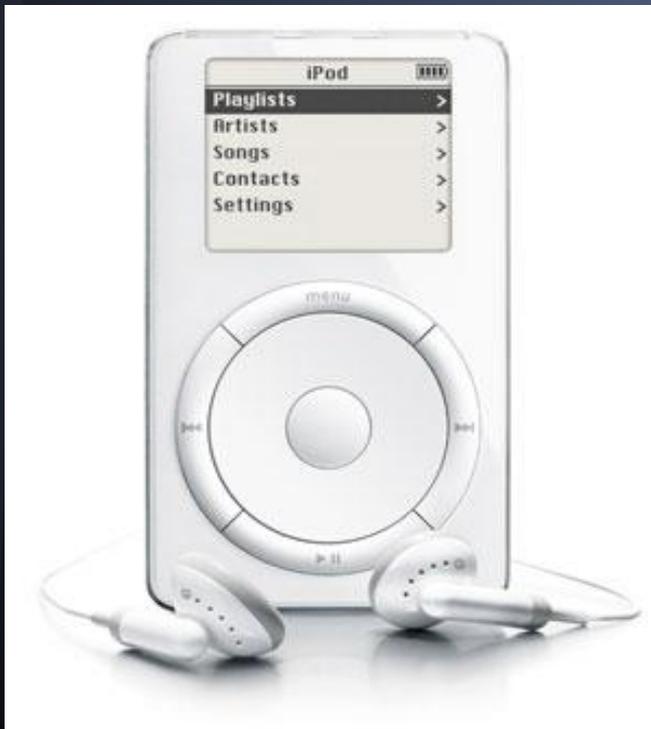

- In 1986, Jobs purchased The Graphics Group from Lucasfilm's that was later renamed Pixar.
- From the partnership they release Toy Story (1995) with Jobs credited as executive producer.
- The company produced big Box-office hits such as: A Bug's Life(1998), Toy Story 2 (1999), Monsters Inc.(2001),Finding Nemo (2003),Toy Story 3(2010) and several more.

Back to Apple

- In 1996 Apple bought NeXT for $427 million. Jobs became de facto chief in July 1997.
- NeXTSTEP evolved into Mac OS X and introduced the iMac.
- Jobs then became permanent CEO calling himself iCEO.
- The company introduced the iPod, and on June 29, 2007 they entered the cellular phone business with the iPhone; a multi-touch display.

Apple Products

First iPod created

First iPhone created

The Ending

- Of August 2011 Jobs resigned as CEO but stayed as the chairman.
- When Jobs resigned both Apple Inc. and The Walt Disney Company shares dropped.
- Jobs held 5.426 million Apple shares worth $2.1 billion and 138 million shares with Disney worth $4.4 billion.
- In 2010 Jobs estimated net worth is about $8.3 billion.
- Jobs passed away from pancreatic cancer on October 5th, 2011 in his Palo Alto, California home.

Steve Jobs

1955-2011

