Film Assignment

Disclaimers:

Film will be in better quality once complete.

My tripod broke and my new one didn't come yet so my legally blind mother took some of these photos.

There are makeup, SFX, and costumes but I did not want to waste any resources in the middle of the apocalypse, so use your imagination for this storyboard.

There are three different characters and they will be more defined in the final film.

I know I'm fat please don't remind me I literally just got over my battle with Bulimia.

my mommy didn't let me bring the knife upstairs :(while I was taking the last few photos so scissors are in some shots but it WILL be a knife in the final product.

I know I'm extra but I just like an excuse to wear clown makeup and to run around with a knife.
