

Why Millennials Are NOT Having Babies

Who are the Millennials?

Young adults born between 1980 and 2000.

Income

The average salary for a millennial New Yorker in an Entry Level position is $ 40,413

Housing

According to a March 2019 report from Apartment List, the median rent for a two bedroom apartment is $2,499 in New York city. Studio and one bedroom apartments come in at $1,889 and $2,098 a month, respectively.

Education

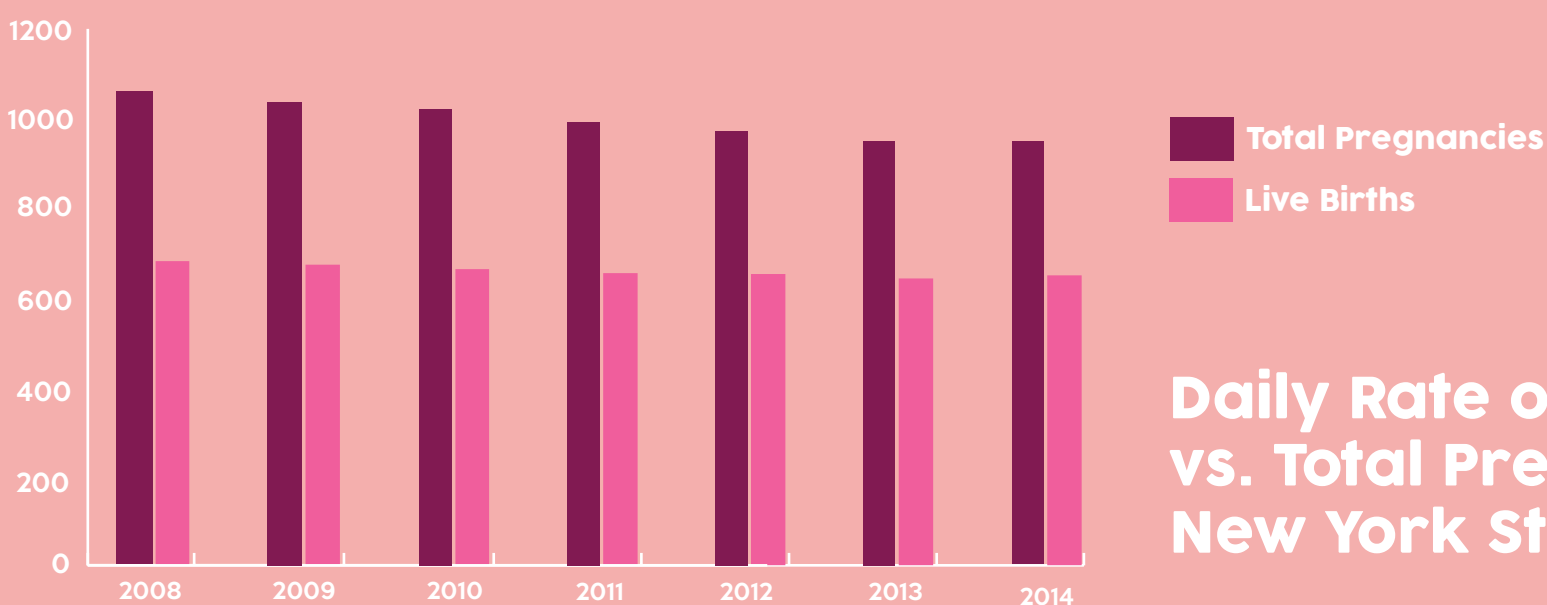

More than 44 million student loan borrowers collectively owe more than $1.5 trillion, an average of more than $37,000 apiece. That exceeds the total for credit cards or auto loans and is second only to mortgage borrowing.

Health

One in 5 adults ages 18 to 36 said they cannot afford routine health-care expenses, according to a recent Harris Poll. Many of those millennials are uninsured because of the cost. An additional 26 percent said they can afford routine health-care costs, but with difficulty.

Daily Rate of Live Births vs. Total Pregnancies in New York State