RE: MS. SARA SAYAL

To Whom It May Concern:

It gives me great pleasure to write this reference letter on behalf of Ms. Sara Sayal. I served as Sara's nursing instructor during her first semester in the nursing program, Sara was always prepared for class and willing to help her fellow classmates. I was also the coordinator of the third semester medical surgical course she was enrolled in while in the nursing program at New York City College of Technology.

Sara was highly motivated, conscientious and always prepared when coming to class. She was very involved in the nursing program and volunteered numerous times for various programs held in the nursing department. Sara was instrumental in obtaining other nursing students to help facilitate student volunteers for the new nursing student orientation day which eased the admission coordinators burden.

I recommend Sara as a prospective employee in your organization. Please feel free to contact me directly if you have any questions. I can be reached at 516-491-7773.

Sincerely,

Bridget Maley
