

Confessions Of A Shopaholic

The girl in the green scarf.

Released Date: February 13th 2009
Director: P.J. Hogan

By: Tenzin Chozin

Confessions Of A Shopaholic

Rebecca Bloomwood (Isla Fisher) is someone who owns several credit cards and has reached the maximum limit on ALL of them, she is basically drowning in debt.

Rebecca wants to join a fashion magazine called "Allete" but the position as the editorial is already taken when she arrives and has to start at a partnering magazine called "Successful Savings" which is a finance magazine.

Gets duped at a store and realizes the Gucci boots are not 100% cashmere and writes a column about it and receives tons of positive feedback. Asks her boss to keep her identity hidden and names it "The Girl in the Green Scarf"

Rebecca's Personality

- Bubbly
- Energetic
- Determined
- Motivated

Turning Point

Suze is fumed with anger when she finds out Rebecca loses the bridesmaid dress for her wedding.

She gets kicked out of her bestfriends house while living there rent free.

She is unable to pay for the rent because of her shopping addiction

Rebecca's Childhood

Her parents always bought her plain basic shoes on sale. A scene in the movie displays her choosing bright colored shoes and her mom ends up buying the brown "grandma" shoes.

Ex: (brown school shoes)

Body Supplements

Body supplements are additions to the body that are jewelry, bags, gloves etc.

Rebecca loves designer, she shows off her gucci bag in the first scene.

She wears silk orange gloves to symbolize high class and royalty.

Main Dress (Girl In The Green Scarf)

Rebecca becomes known as the girl in the green scarf because of a column she receives in the magazine “ Successful Savings”.

Rebecca was suppose to finish work on the column but ends up shopping and realizes the cashmere Gucci boots she buys are not 100% cashmere and this leads to her writing about her fashion finds and asks her boss Luke to use a fake name.

Uses the fake name in order to hide from debt collectors and banks

