Current Event

- Climate change is a major issue in Australia.
- Sydney has had around 170 days of rain so far in 2022, breaking its annual rainfall record last month.
- This has impacted regions across Australia not just Sydney, there has been an overall increase in rainfall as well as rapid and dangerous flooding.

(Turnbull, 2022)

Fashion Current Event

- AI has allowed anyone to create unique designs in a matter of seconds.
- Some feel as though AI design can negatively impact fashion design. As is it can take jobs and it is difficult for human creativity to go up against computer generated products.
- Partnering fashion with AI is something companies are starting to explore.
