FINAL

Who am I in society? It's a question we don't always think about. And when we do reflect, there's so little we say. But expressing who we are by the way we dress is much easier to convey. The way we dress, the way I dress, is indicative of my identity/personality.

Examining the shirt, you can see it is larger than the average, creating a V-neck at the neckline. You can assume that I like comfort and have a laidback personality. Additionally, aside from the graphics, there is nothing fancy about the shirt, aside from the studs on the neckline. I'm a simple, no-frills kind of guy. Onto the graphics, you see a man with a woman, a man with a kid, and religious symbols. I am a husband, a chef, a stylist, an investor, and everything in between. I love and cherish my wife and three children to pieces! I would do anything for them, supporting their careers, paying for their schools, etc. In my free time, I love to play basketball which is why you see the basketball in the back.

I also consider myself a businessman that is into fashion and love working with custom suiting. But most of all, I'm a man of God. I am not the most religious but I do believe in the Lord. I've had hardships in the past, but I use those as lessons to be who I am today. And I'm still learning more and more everyday.
