Big Mama

52 LETTERS WITH STEP BY STEP ILLUSTRATIONS

Big Mama is a geometric sans style with thick stems and flat ends. She is sturdy and bold with subtle details that make her easy to read at small sizes. Just be careful not to make the negative pockets inside each letter too small.

In this workbook, you'll learn how to draw all 52 uppercase and lowercase letters step by step. By breaking up the letters by shape you can build up the letters one by one like a puzzle. Then fill in each letter to make sure that the weight of your phrase is staying consistent.

Handwriting practice lines consisting of two columns of ten rows each. Each row contains a solid top line, a dashed middle line, and a solid bottom line.

3. DRAW FROM MEMORY

Ok, get ready for the hard part. Without cheating, redraw the alphabet one more time without looking back at the previous pages. This exercise will help you memorize the style so you can create awesome work without any reference!

The page contains ten rows of handwriting practice lines. Each row is composed of three horizontal lines: a solid top line, a dashed middle line, and a solid bottom line. These lines are arranged in two columns of five rows each, providing a structured space for practicing letter formation from memory.
