Professionalism and Participation
The Department of Hospitality Management follows industry standards in order to educate, develop and mentor future hospitality and tourism professionals. In order to successfully complete a course, students must consistently participate in class and meet deadlines.

Beverage Tasting Framework
Tasting of beverages will commence after the component tasting and continue throughout the semester. Students under the age of nineteen (19) years of age are not permitted to sample alcoholic beverages and tasting is not required. Students whose religious beliefs or medical conditions forbid or prevent drinking alcoholic beverages are not required to taste. Techniques of beverage tasting and the protocol will be demonstrated and explained during the first weeks of the course.

Students are requested to cooperate with the instructor and guest lecturers and each other in setting up the classroom, procuring wine glasses, ice buckets, towels, cutting bread and cheese, waste buckets, garbage pick-up and bussing, and when tasting is completed, remove glasses, bottles and trash. The entire classroom is to be inspected prior to dismissal.

It is important as Hospitality Management students to be concerned with the necessary sanitation and housekeeping aspects of the course.

Seating Arrangements
Seat assignments are necessary due to the nature of the tasting. Each student will be required to take the same assigned seat for each class meeting.

MISSION STATEMENT
The Hospitality Management Department of New York City College of Technology educates students for careers in the hospitality industry through foundational knowledge of hospitality operations and experiences that cultivate diverse perspectives, lifelong learning, collaboration, and community engagement.

NYC COLLEGE OF TECHNOLOGY STATEMENT ON ACADEMIC INTEGRITY
Students and all others who work with information, ideas, texts, images, music, inventions, and other intellectual property owe their audience and sources accuracy and honesty in using, crediting, and citing sources. As a community of intellectual and professional workers, the College recognizes its responsibility for providing instruction in information literacy and academic integrity, offering models of good practice, and responding vigilantly and appropriately to infractions of academic integrity. Accordingly, academic dishonesty is prohibited in The City University of New York and at New York City College of Technology and is punishable by penalties, including failing grades, suspension, and expulsion. The complete text of the College Academic Integrity Policy Manual may be found on the College website.

STATEMENT OF ACADEMIC DISHONESTY AND PLAGARISM
As stated in the Academic Integrity Policy Manual, "academic dishonesty occurs when individuals plagiarize or cheat in the course of their academic work. Plagiarism is the presenting of someone else's ideas without proper credit or attribution. Cheating is the unauthorized use or attempted use of material, information, notes, study aids, devices or communication during an academic exercise."

STATEMENT OF CLASSROOM BEHAVIOR
Each student has the right to study and learn in a comfortable, safe, supportive environment that promotes self-esteem – free of fear, humiliation, intimidation, offensive or suggestive language.

PROFESSIONALISM AND PARTICIPATION
The Department of Hospitality Management follows industry standards in order to educate, develop and mentor future hospitality and tourism professionals. In order to successfully complete a course, students must consistently participate in class and meet deadlines.

USE OF ELECTRONIC DEVICES
As stated in the Student Handbook, the use of cellular phones and audio equipment in all academic and study areas of the college is prohibited. Students are not permitted to take calls or text message during class. Students may not use their cell phones as calculators. In some instances, an instructor may allow the use of personal electronic devices for in class activities.
