SUBMIT YOUR STUDENTS' BEST WRITING TO

City Tech Writer

Volume 8

We publish outstanding writing from ALL disciplines:
lab reports, research papers, essays,
interview transcripts, creative work, and more...

- We encourage submissions from all departments, and are always looking to represent new courses.
- Keep your submissions coming throughout the fall semester! The deadline for submissions is November 22, 2022.
- Please upload your students' work electronically (preferably in Word, but PDFs acceptable) to the following site: openlab.citytech.cuny.edu/citytechwriter
- If you are a student, you'll need a professor to sponsor your work. Please consult the professor for whom you wrote the entry in question to secure their support. Professors will need to provide confirmation of sponsorship.

If uploading poses difficulties, you can still email the submission (and any questions) to Prof. Lucas Kwong at ctwsubmissions@gmail.com.

If you're a professor, please upload up to 3 students' work electronically (preferably in Word, but PDFs acceptable) to the following site: openlab.citytech.cuny.edu/citytechwriter

If you are a student, you'll need a professor to sponsor up to 3 submissions. Please consult the professor for whom you wrote the entry in question to secure their support. Professors will need to provide confirmation of sponsorship.

This will be our SECOND all-digital issue. The brand new website, which can be viewed here, supplements students' voices with video interviews, audio versions of entries, and images. CTW brings your ideas, stories, and poetry to life in accessible alternative formats.

Our community may be distanced, but writing can bring us together!

How Music Motivates Me

The top music genres I listen to and how they motivate me throughout the day

Music Genres I listen to Throughout the Day and the Emotions they Affect

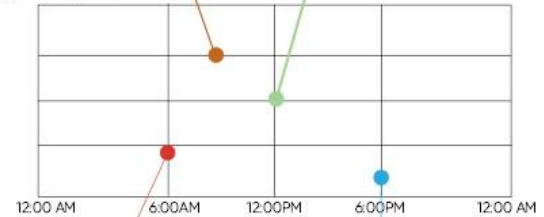

Feel Good Music

Pop or well known as popular music is my second favored music to listen to. Not only are the music catchy but familiar. It is my "feel good" music.

Inspirational Music

Classical music is my Inspirational music. It helps stimulate my creativity and helps me come up with new ideas.

Fuel Music

Latin is one of the major music I listen to. It is my fuel music, It motivates me to get up in the morning and to continue on with my day. Latin music is known for its upbeat rhythm and passion in every song.

Relaxing Music

RnB is my relaxing and calming music. It helps me think and relax with all the work I have to do. I listen to this music when winding down.
