

I began my brainstorming process by shooting off some ideas of traditional fairy/folk tales that came to mind. I decided that it would be cool to modernize them under an urban lens. So I came up with urban settings and scenarios for each of the stories. In the end the two that I decided on were Don Quixote and the 3 little pigs. Although Aladdin as a booster is a tempting one as well. The Don Quixote rendition I would imagine as two friends in the 1980s setting out on an epic quest to paint subway trains. In the story of the 3 little pigs, I changed the big bad wolf to be a detective after 3 brothers, who wants to execute a search of their homes but has no warrant.

don quixote brain storming.
