Fairytale: Hansel and Gretel

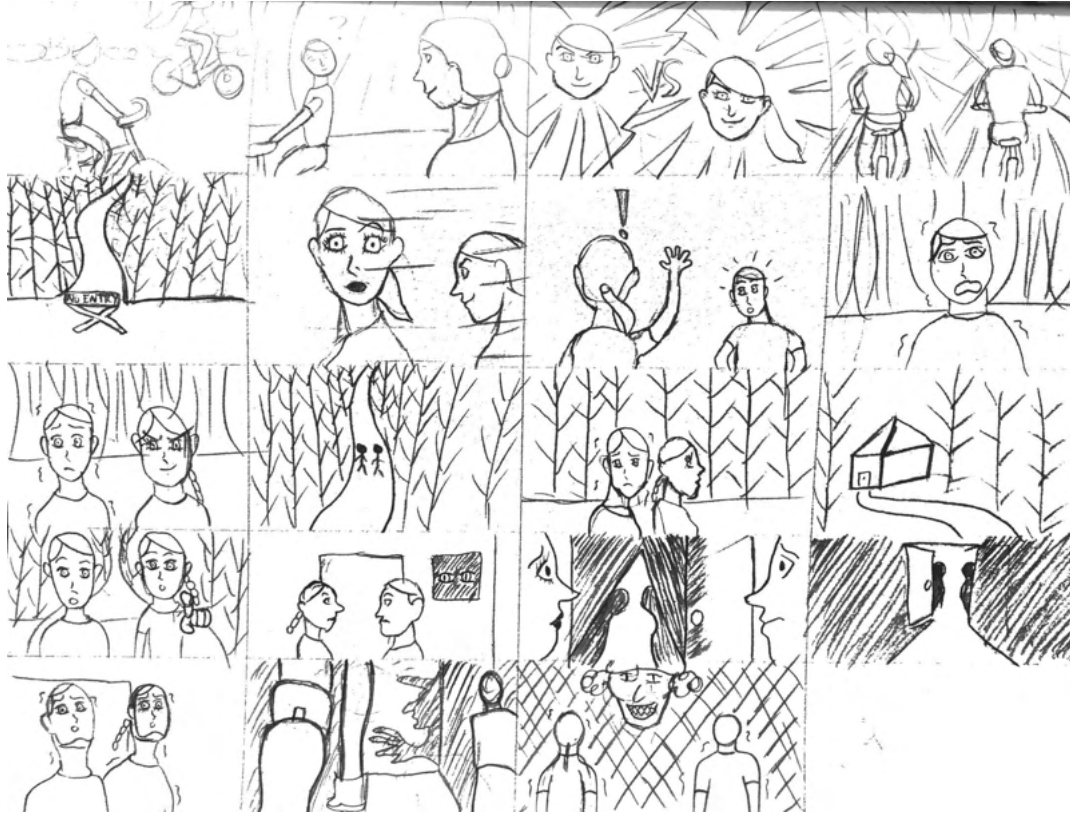

Setting: Modern day NYC in Central Park.

Characters: Hansel and Gretel are in their late 20's.

My twist to the story:

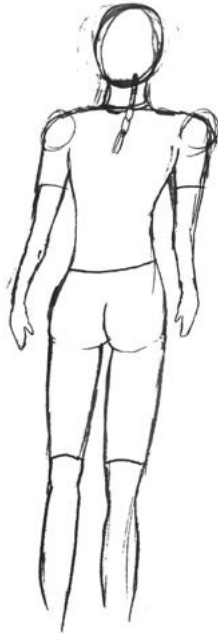

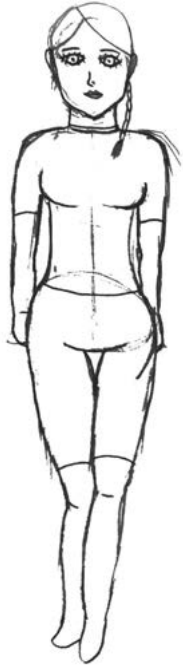

Hansel and Gretel are bike riding in Central Park when all of sudden Gretel spots a forbidden path. Both get off their bikes and go on foot into the path and later on come across an abandoned house. They decide to investigate the house, but little did they know, that was a witch's house who was awaiting their presence.
