

Where I came from

Small town in China

City College of Technology

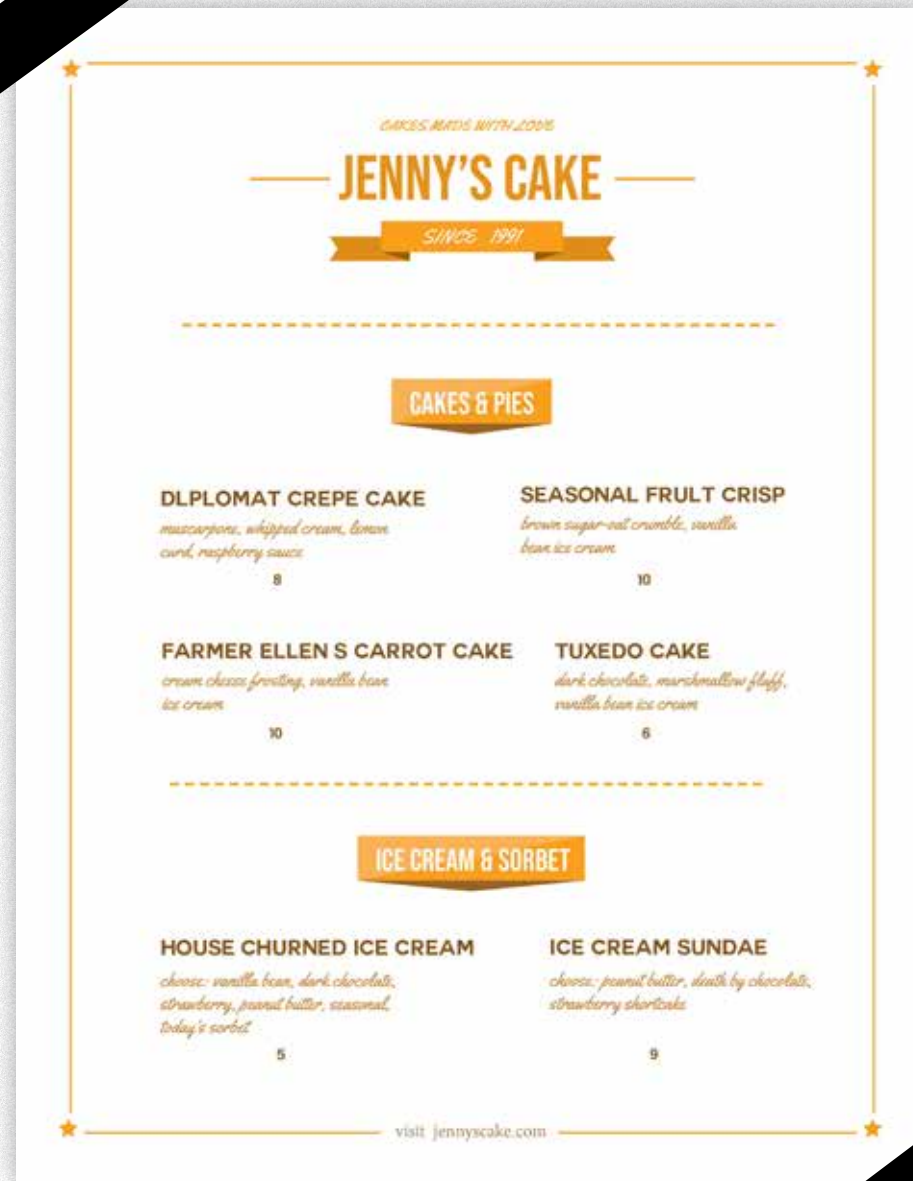

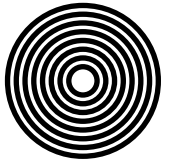

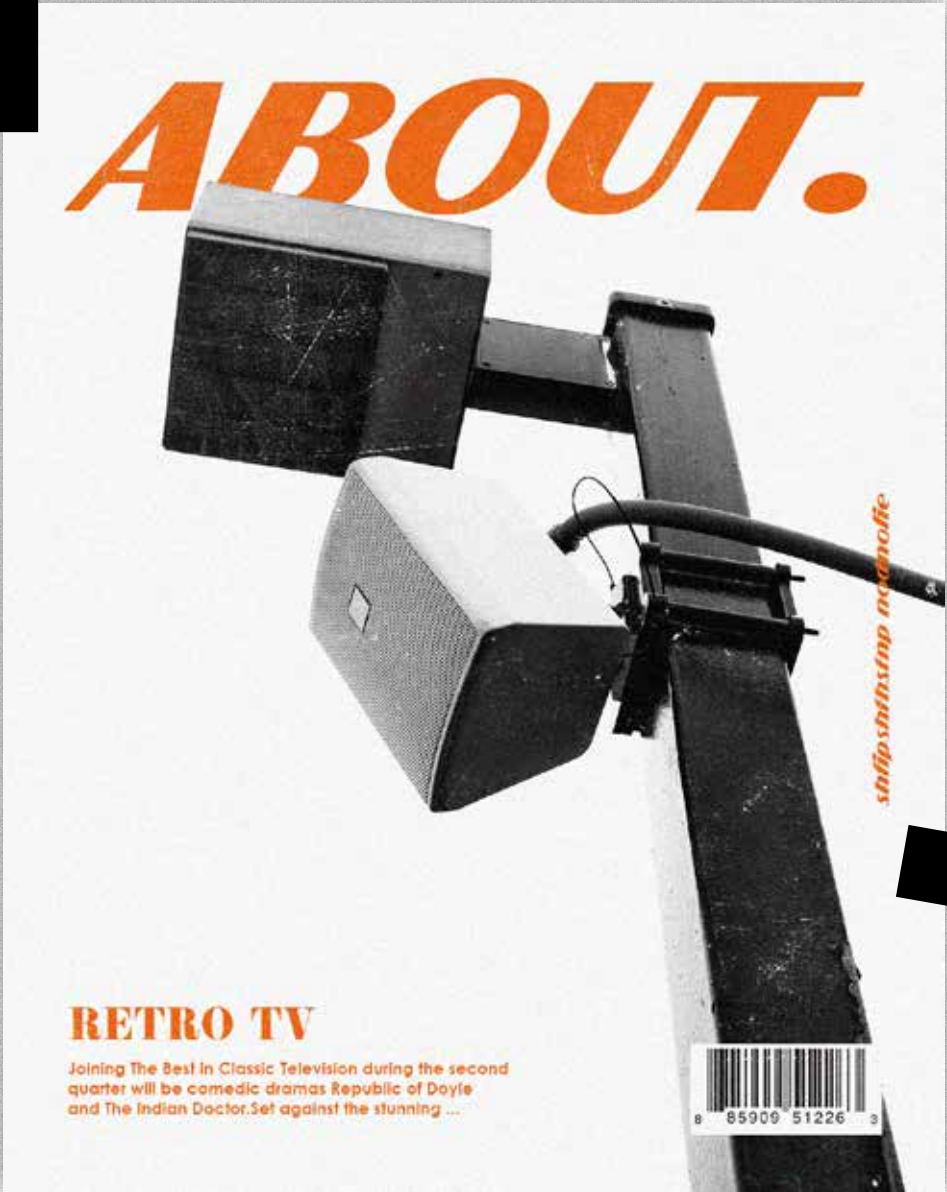

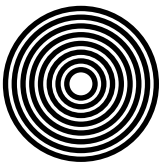

Strong suits

poster design

logo design

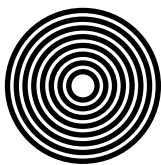

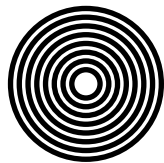

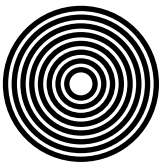

shipshitsup nemojie

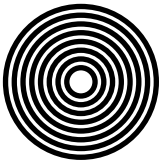

The creation event

Later works

NEWSNEWS

Travel

JUNE 06, 2023

Things to know Before Traveling

to South Korea

by Minnie Ladner

Get the most out of your visit by brushing up on Korean culture with these useful travel tips.

The Korean Alphabet Is Easy as ABC

Hangul (which translates to "sound script") is the official alphabet of the Korean language. Unlike Latin, it's phonetic, meaning it's made up of letters that can be combined into syllables that have to be pronounced as they are. The script has some extra characters for punctuation, but the alphabet itself is actually quite easy to learn. For example, it can be learned in just a day. Visiting the alphabet will make learning to read much easier, and if you don't speak Korean, it's not a problem. You can find a lot of information on the internet.

Transportation Is Efficient and Inexpensive

Thanks to the country's efficient public transportation system, it's incredibly easy and cheap to get around. When you arrive, pick up a T-money card, which can be used on public buses and subways in almost all of the major cities. It also covers transfers between different modes of transport, making it very convenient for many cities. It's also possible to rent a car, but driving licenses from other countries are not accepted. Taxis are also available, but they can be expensive. If you're not a driver, it's best to use public transport.

It's Okay to Shout at Your Server

In restaurants in Korea, servers will tell you that you need to shout (cheerfully) and that you need something. The reason for this is that shouting is a sign of enthusiasm and is a way to get the server's attention. It's not a sign of anger or aggression. It's a way to show that you're excited and that you're enjoying the food. So, if you're in a restaurant and you want to get the server's attention, it's okay to shout. Just make sure you're shouting cheerfully.

Tipping Isn't Necessary

Unlike the generally good service provided at restaurants and bars, tipping is not required or expected. In fact, it's considered rude. If you're in a restaurant and you want to tip, it's best to leave a small amount of cash on the table. If you're in a bar, it's best to leave a small amount of cash on the bar. If you're in a taxi, it's best to leave a small amount of cash in the taxi. If you're in a hotel, it's best to leave a small amount of cash in the hotel. If you're in a store, it's best to leave a small amount of cash in the store. If you're in a restaurant, it's best to leave a small amount of cash on the table. If you're in a bar, it's best to leave a small amount of cash on the bar. If you're in a taxi, it's best to leave a small amount of cash in the taxi. If you're in a hotel, it's best to leave a small amount of cash in the hotel. If you're in a store, it's best to leave a small amount of cash in the store.

Wear Shower Shoes

It should be noted that many Korean bathrooms do not have a bathtub or shower. Instead, there is a shower head attached to the wall of the shower room. While this is a bit of a hassle, it's a common sight in many Korean hotels and homes. If you're in a hotel, it's best to wear shower shoes. If you're in a home, it's best to wear slippers. If you're in a public place, it's best to wear flip-flops. If you're in a restaurant, it's best to wear shoes. If you're in a bar, it's best to wear shoes. If you're in a taxi, it's best to wear shoes. If you're in a hotel, it's best to wear shoes. If you're in a store, it's best to wear shoes. If you're in a restaurant, it's best to wear shoes. If you're in a bar, it's best to wear shoes. If you're in a taxi, it's best to wear shoes. If you're in a hotel, it's best to wear shoes. If you're in a store, it's best to wear shoes.

Gifts Equate to Graciousness

The exchange of gifts is an important part of Korean life. It's a way to show respect and gratitude. It's also a way to build relationships. If you're in a restaurant, it's best to bring a small gift for the server. If you're in a bar, it's best to bring a small gift for the bartender. If you're in a taxi, it's best to bring a small gift for the driver. If you're in a hotel, it's best to bring a small gift for the hotel staff. If you're in a store, it's best to bring a small gift for the store staff. If you're in a restaurant, it's best to bring a small gift for the server. If you're in a bar, it's best to bring a small gift for the bartender. If you're in a taxi, it's best to bring a small gift for the driver. If you're in a hotel, it's best to bring a small gift for the hotel staff. If you're in a store, it's best to bring a small gift for the store staff.

Confucius Rules the Land

South Korea is a country that follows Confucius's teachings. Confucius was a Chinese philosopher who lived in the 6th century BC. He taught that people should be respectful and obedient to their superiors. This is a core value in Korean culture. It's a way to show respect and gratitude. It's also a way to build relationships. If you're in a restaurant, it's best to be respectful to the server. If you're in a bar, it's best to be respectful to the bartender. If you're in a taxi, it's best to be respectful to the driver. If you're in a hotel, it's best to be respectful to the hotel staff. If you're in a store, it's best to be respectful to the store staff.

NEWSNEWS

Travel

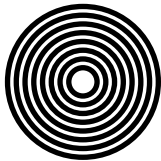

JUNE 06, 2023

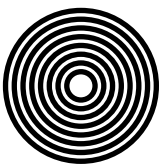

Things to know Before Traveling

to South Korea

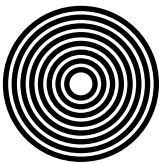

by Minnie Ladner

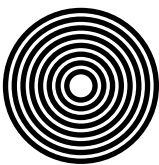

Yakitori taisho

Later works

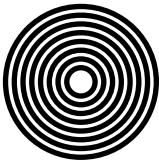

Yakitori taisho

Later works

Did anyone ask about me

Free time

did anyone ask about me / 01 making posters to express m y s e l f

im who i m

let's explore to remember

Did anyone ask about me

Free time

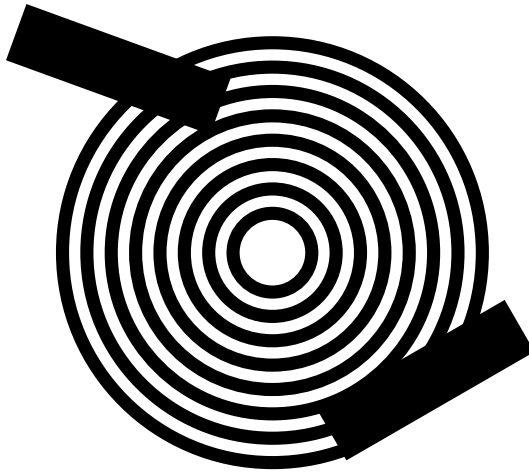

About future

graphic designer

Thank

You

FALL

2018

