

RESUME

ADEDARA ZACCHEAUS OLUFEMI, RN

801 prospect place, apt. 2B

Brooklyn, NY 11216. Tel: 347- 881- 5180

zaccheausfemo07@yahoo.com

OBJECTIVE:

Seeking a position within a progressive and prestigious medical center where I will be able to develop and utilize my professional nursing skills to promote quality health care to patients and the community

EDUCATION/ CREDENTIALS

New York State Registered Nurse (RN) 03/23/12.

Long Island College Hospital School of Nursing

350 Henry Street, Brooklyn, NY 11201

Associate in Applied Science Nursing (AAS) June, 2011

University of Ife, Nigeria

B.Sc. Economics. December, 1986

BSN-----IN PROGRESS AT CITY TECH.

08/1/14 –TO DATE Bellevue Hospital Center, NY, NY

Title: Functional Job Description - Registered Nurse - Psychiatry

FUNCTIONAL DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

- 1) Accountable for the care activities, safety and goal achievements of assigned patients through assessing, diagnosing, planning and interviewing in actual or potential health problems and evaluating patient's response to care

- 2) Patient education and discharge planning
- 3) Establishes accountability for panel (assignments) of patient/families
- 4) Accepts in person reports from departing nurse on patient progress, needs, medications and plan of care
- 5) Reviews individual patient/family plan of care in conjunction with information from the departing nurse, establishes priorities
- 6) Conducts preliminary assessment of patients, reprioritizes as indicated
GOAL: completes care activities on time, demonstrates organization in completing all care/tasks
- 7) Always checks patient identification prior to providing care or service
 - Assure patient has an identification band
- 8) Identifies what the patient/family expects and meets expectations
- 9) Assigns patient care activities to support personnel and supervises performance
- 10) Transcribes and validates physician orders
- 11) Reviews physician orders; reviews medication orders against Medication Administration Record (MAR); identifies medication requiring reordering
- 12) Administers medications as ordered and on schedule using the six (6) medication "RIGHTS"
GOAL: Zero (0) medication delivery errors
- 13) Documents medication administration at a time given to patient and documents response as needed
- 14) Completes assessment of the patient/family upon admission

- 15) Contacts agencies, facilities and significant others to obtain patient data/information as needed
- 16) Initiates and revises the Multidisciplinary Plan of Care
- 17) Creates a safe environment for patient through :
 - Initiates and maintains standard and transmission based precautions
 - Minimizes restraint use; employs conservative measures to assure safety
 - Implements preventative measures to avoid fall/injury. Understands "Falling Stars Program"
 - Teaches safety program to patient/families
 - Conforms to JCAHO National Patient Safety Goals
- 18) Identifies Continuum of Care needs and thoroughly completes Discharge Instruction forms
 - Assures instructions are clear and legible
- 19) Performs competently in crisis/drills
 - Codes
 - Code Red
 - Disaster
- 20) Provides and perform all other patient care activities
Demonstrate competency in clinical skills
 - Pain management
 - Use of NG Tubes
 - Orthopedic devices
 - Wound Care
 - Tracheostomy Care
 - Colostomy/Ileostomy care
 - Foley irrigation
 - Continuous bladder irrigation
 - Bowel/bladder training
 - Use of restraints and seclusion
 - Oral/nasal/endotracheal suctioning

- EKG
- Respiratory Therapy Interventions
- IV access: follows tubing from the IV bag to the access site to assure the correct tubing connected to the patient

21) Demonstrates knowledge in human growth and development relative to age

22) Delivers care that is sensitive to the cultural needs and expectations of each patient/family

23) Evaluates the effectiveness of the care/services delivered

24) Performs bedside diagnostic accurately and documents:

2/01/12 - 7/31/14 Bellevue Hospital Center, NY, NY

POSITION: Title: Functional Job Description - Registered Nurse – MEDICAL-SURGICAL UNIT

DUTIES:

Assessment of patients including responses, reactions, outcomes and results to medications and procedures

Administrations of all medications

Execution of physician's order for IV fluid, medications, oxygen, continuous monitoring of respiratory status

- Initiates and implement a written plan of care based on nursing diagnoses

Develops nursing care plan

- Initiates and maintains accurate documentation to describe nursing intervention and patient outcomes

03/03/2003 to 10/01/12: Bellevue Hospital Center, New York

POSITION: PATIENT CARE TECHNICIAN/ PSYCHIATRIC HEALTH TECH.

DUTIES:

- Perform / assist with the physical care of assigned patients e.g. dress changing, taking vital signs, and documentation of care given in the computer
- Assist in the admission, transfer and discharge process on assigned patients
- Prepare patients for examinations / .test / procedures
- Assist in recreational activities
- Observe the condition, mental status, social behavior of patient and report observations to charge nurse

□ Assist patients with personnel e.g. giving complete bath, feeds patient and provides oral care and related hygiene care.

REFERENCES

MR. ADELEKE ADESANYA RN

TEL. 347-489-0765

MR. SUNDAY OLADUNMOYE, RN

TEL. 347-254-1431