

Welcome to The Department of Hospitality Management

Faculty and Staff – Elizabeth Schaible, Chair

Rosa Abreu-Runkel, John Akana, Jean F. Claude, Lynda Dias, Kylie Garcelon, Karen Goodlad, Mark Hellermann, Louise Hoffman, Joanne Lewin-Jacus, Julia V. Jordan, Ellen Kim, Susan Lifrieri-Lowry, Amit Mehrotra, Patrick O’Halloran, Susan Phillip, James Reid, Claire Stewart, Gerald VanLoon, Robert Walljasper, Thalia Warner

To view faculty bios visit

<http://www.citytech.cuny.edu/academics/deptsites/hospitality/faculty.aspx>

Orientation Objectives

- Acquaint new students with the mission and culture of the department
- Familiarize students with the department’s facilities
- Create an appreciation for knowledge and learning
- Introduce students to faculty members of the HMGT department and fellow students
- Explore opportunities for participation in department activities

Faculty Leaders:

Rosa Abreu and Susan Lifrieri-Lowry

Student Leaders: Provided by the HM Ambassadors Club

Agenda:

11:15: N206

Welcome

11:20: N206

Who we are, why we are here

11:25 Tour of Department

Professionalism, N202 Community Service N208, Curriculum N214 and Opportunities N225

12:25: Janet Lefler Dining Room- Q&A

Welcome

Lead by Prof. Rosa Abreu Lifrieri-Lowry and

- Introductions
- What is Hospitality- The quality or disposition of receiving and treating guests and strangers in a warm, friendly, generous way
- What does it mean to be hospitality professional?
- What does it mean to be a college student?

Tour of the department- student leaders will tour groups through the hospitality department pointing out faculty offices, chairs office, lockers, CLT office, lab classrooms and lecture classrooms. Points of interest include information bulletin boards and showcases for clubs, events and advisor’s schedules.

	Room	Group	Group	Group	Group
11:25	N206, Professionalism	A	D	C	B
11:40	N225, Opportunities	B	A	D	C
11:55	N202, Community Service	C	B	A	D
12:10	N214, Main Kitchen Curriculum	D	C	B	A

Professionalism

Room: N202

Facilitator: Student Leader TBD

Handouts: Statement of Academic Integrity

- Dress Code for labs and lecture/oral presentations
- What does on time mean?
- Department Etiquette

Opportunities

Room: N225, computer on showing OpenLab and HMGT FB page

Facilitators: Prof. Rosa Abreu and TBD(Paris or Disney student)

Handout: HM Fact sheet

What are your collegiate goals?

How will they be accomplished?

What we offer outside of our course offerings:

- Learning center, Library, Blackboard training
- OpenLab
- Walt Disney World College Program
- Thomas Ahrens Work Study Program, CUNY Study Abroad
- Facebook page for networking
- Advisement from Faculty Members in all fields

Community Service, Volunteering, Networking

Room: N208

Facilitator: Student Leader TBD will represent one club

Handout: Department Calendar

- How to read department calendar and when and where club events occur
- How to sign up and volunteer for clubs
- Getting involved equals opportunities to build resume and network with industry professionals, leads to internships and jobs

Curriculum

Room: Main Kitchen, N214

Facilitator: Prof. Susan Lowry

Handout: College Catalogue, Advisement Worksheet

- What is a syllabus?
- What are common core classes?
- What are flexible core classes?
- College catalogue, what is a pre requisite
- Importance of advisement
- What are the different areas of focus?

Meet in Janet Lefler Dining room at 12:25, questions, and closing remarks